“ Well obviously one of my favorite memories would be looking out of our hotel room to see Pop Pop floating on an iceberg on the Niagra River heading to the Falls (with my father encouraging him of course) and Mom Mom screaming, “Alfred, Your life insurance better be paid”. And then the hotel manager running out to save the little kids from the raging water until he realized it was just a couple of old men who refused to grow up 🙄🙄🙄 God only knows what kind of trouble those two are getting into now

“ I loved working with Al at Palmyra Cove Nature Park. He was loved by the students and staff alike. We spent a lot of time together and I cherish the memories of our conversations. I never heard an angry word from Al. He was something special.
