“ Grandparents are special gifts - the common thread that connects a family and defines what it stands for. They have a way of making you feel like everything you do is extraordinary and nothing is impossible. They remind you how quickly time flies, and teach you how precious life is. Our family won't be the same without you, Poppy. I'll miss your stories, your jokes, your love of ice cream, and your never-ending struggle to use a cell phone. I hope I can live a life as great as yours <3
