

Dr. Paul J. Green

March 23, 1941 - June 28, 2020

Dr. Paul J. Green, of Cinnaminson and previously of Delran, NJ, passed away peacefully at home on June 28, 2020. He was 79 years old. Dr. Green grew up in Northeast Philadelphia and later in Riverton, NJ. He cherished memories of his beloved parents and growing up with his many siblings and they always recalled him being a skilled chess player and an amateur meteorologist.

Paul graduated from Saint Joseph's Preparatory School and St Joseph's University. He earned his Ph.D. in Physical Chemistry at West Virginia University and completed postdoctoral fellowships at University of Illinois in Chicago and Union Carbide in Tarrytown, NY. After shifting his focus to Clinical Chemistry he spent most of his career as the director of the Endocrinology Laboratories at the Medical Center of Central Georgia in Macon, GA and later at Thomas Jefferson University Hospital in Philadelphia. He also taught chemistry to medical students and was a published researcher on various topics. Paul was a devoted family man and was proud of his 2 sons, 3 beautiful grandchildren and 46 nieces and nephews. Paul enjoyed taking family trips and spent much of his retirement tending to his flower garden, playing competitive billiards, and as an avid golfer chasing Old Man Par with his sons and with the senior group at Pennsauken Country Club.

Anyone who knew Paul will remember him as a gentleman who enjoyed conversing about various topics including politics, investing, the Phillies, golf, and history. Paul was a generous man who supported various charities and was a long-time sponsor of scholarships at both WVU and Saint Joseph's Prep.

Paul is survived by his wife, Frances Green (Pierce); his sons, Andrew (Jodi) and Jeffrey Green; his grandchildren, Jossi, Isabelle, and Evan; and his brother, George. He is also survived by many nieces, nephews, extended family members and friends who will miss him dearly. Paul was predeceased by his parents, Frank and Peggy Green, and his siblings, Frank, Margaret, Jack, Ted, Dorothy, Betty, Joe, and Bill.

Services for Paul will be private for his family, but will be live-streamed from his tribute page on the Givnish.com website at 10 am Thursday, July 2, 2020.  If you are having issues viewing the live stream, his service will also be recorded and uploaded to his webpage afterwards. ***

“ I am thankful that the service was video streamed, and I could take part. It reminded me of all the good things that happened in the Green family over the years. George, Bill and Paul were good people who came from the Green family and St. Joseph Prep Jesuit tradition.

“ Dear Fran, Andy, Jeff,

I remember the first time I met Paul. I was visiting Andy one summer night after freshman year in college. Figuring I'd come in and say hello to Andy's parents before Andy and I went to play pool (I think) i forget what we did that night, but still remember meeting Paul. He asked me what I was majoring in, most people would just nod and say that's interesting. However Paul continued to question, why was that my major and what I intended to do with this upon graduation, the rest of my life, etc.. I wasn't prepared to answer the questions and it was obvious. Though i felt a little uncomfortable in the moment, I appreciated his candor and he seemed generally interested. Which was endearing, though he may have just been trying to weed out the riffraff who was hanging out with his son :) Either way 30 years later, I still remember that moment in Andy's kitchen.

Years later I would start to know Paul more personally via the APA Pool League he recruited Andy, myself and our friend Mark into. We played a couple nights a week for a few years. Paul was the ultimate competitor and was very passionate about the game, expecting the best out of everyone at all times. He would never back down from a controversial call on a shot. Even if that meant sometimes face-to-face heated arguments with men much younger and bigger than himself. Though sometimes we all wished he would chill out a bit, there was part of me that always watched in amazement. Though he certainly would have been at the losing end of any battle, he was fearless. Much more fearless than most. Most people would compromise and move on. Not Paul, he'd fight and fight... and in hind site, that's a admirable quality. He stood up for what he thought was right, and wouldn't compromise.

Though I didn't get to play much golf with Paul, I think perhaps once or twice, I heard he had the same passion on the links. Those who did play with him I'm sure have a story or two or three.

I'm so sorry for your loss, my heart felt condolences. He will be remembered and missed by many.

With Love,
Brant, Jeanne, Ellie and Ben

“ To Paul's Family

I very often enjoyed Paul's company at events at St. Joseph's Prep, especially those engaging him and his classmates from the class of 1959. I was always happy to hear about his fulfilling life and his family. He always encouraged me when I was part of the Prep mission and I know he contributed to help that mission. I will be sending a gift to the Prep in his honor.

We will miss him at our next event! But I have marked my calendar for the Tribute tomorrow.

I send prayers. May Paul Rest in God's Peace!

“ Paul and I played golf with the seniors at Pennsauken CC. While sharing a libation at the 19th hole we began talking about WW II. My father was an infantry company First Sergeant in the 5th Div. As it turned out Paul's older brother, Jack, was also in the 5th Div. I went home and did some research in my dad's papers and found a "Morning Report" roster from Co E/11 Reg/5th Div for 14 March, 1945. On that roster was the name J. E. Green. The next time I saw Paul at the club I asked, "What was Jack's middle initial?" Paul said "E". My dad and Paul's brother were in the same company during the war.

Jack did his Basic Training at Ft McClellan, AL. There was also a chance that they knew each other in Alabama since dad was training cadre before going to Europe in September of 1944. This created a very special relationship between Paul and me. I will cherish it always. Tom Holland
