“ My memories of Johnny go back to when we were little kids running around the backyard of my parents home in Danville, Virginia. I was the nerdy, shy cousin with the awful red hair. He made me laugh. He made me feel that it was okay to have my head more often than not in a book. He would sit and talk while I listened. I loved and respected him. He had my back when we were youngsters and he had my back up until the day he took his last breath. He did not allow anyone to disrespect me. He was the best cousin a nerdy girl could possibly have. I will miss him. He is now with those who loved him more than he probably truly knew.

Denisha, thank you for taking care of my cousin. I am eternally grateful to you. My sympathies to you as you deal with Johnny's death at a time when family cannot grieve with you. Know that we love you. You were God's gift to Johnny, especially when he needed you the most.

“ God put me in his life for a reason and I did what a wife was supposed to do. I truly loved him through the good and bad. I'm just happy I gave some comfort.

“ My cousin Johnny!!! He was full of life and vitality with a personality larger than life itself...Johnny exuded confidence. He was well versed in so many areas, John could sit down and have an intelligent conversation with you or anyone on any subject at any time, and funny as all get out. Johnny's deep voice was so distinctive, you knew when he entered the room. Nobody said my nickname "LeeLee" liked Johnny did. I will miss that...I will miss you. And to Denisha, thank you for being his Angel. With love and affection
