

Joseph L. Marchese

March 30, 1942 - June 18, 2021

Joseph Louis Marchese, 79, of Delran, New Jersey, passed away peacefully on Friday, June 18, 2021, with his wife and daughters by his side.

He was born to Salvatore and Massimina (Mae) Marchese, March 30, 1942 in South Philly. Joe received his Bachelor's Degree at La Salle University and his Master's Degree at West Chester University. He was a teacher at Archmere Academy, owner of Marchese's Children's Wear, and most recently, Vice President of Business Development at Pennoni Associates. He considered his colleagues to be his close friends.

Joe was the most amazing husband, father, and grandfather. He is survived by his loving wife, Kathleen A. (nee Deckard) and his three daughters, Jeannette (Mike), Renee (Frank), and Colleen (Chris). He is the proud grandfather of McKenzie, Victoria, Salvatore, and Michael. He is also survived by his brother Anthony (Marie) and his sister RoseAnne (Lou). Joe is further survived by many other family members and friends who he loved dearly.

Joe loved spending time with his family, especially his wife, children, and grandchildren. He created countless memories at Indian Princesses, family parties, and celebrating his 50th Anniversary to his wife with a beautiful party. Going on cruises, taking family vacations to Wildwood Crest, skiing in the Poconos, and writing his memorable Christmas letters brought him such joy. He also enjoyed playing cards, walking his property, and watching the birds.

Joe always made sure to help those in need and it was very important to him that all people take care of those less fortunate.

I hope this makes it to the girls...

This is Amy Anderson from Indian Princesses (which, I loved that that era in his life made it into his obituary)

Your dad was such a joyful, positive man, and I'm glad for the years of influence he had in my childhood.

He came to my dad's viewing 10 years ago, and I was SO touched and gladdened to see his face amongst those gathered.

One never knows the influence they have on people they interact with either on a daily basis, or just in passing... and I have no doubt your father positively influenced more than he would know.

Love and Prayers during this grief and loss.. may you be surrounded as you need with friends and family.

I grew up with Anthony and Joe Marchese. We went to the same Grade School and High School. I remember many days at their family house and getting on the bus every morning going to Bishop Neumann High School. Over the years when we would get together he was always great to be around. Very funny and outward personality.

I remember the last time I saw Joe was at the Tampa Airport, both of us heading home after our separate vacations. As always he was full of life and entertaining explaining how hurt his foot on vacation. As Boarding the plane began, Joe said I needed to get a wheel chair like he had so I could also be first to board the plane. Once again it was a funny and humorous meeting. Your life here was very meaningful to your Family, Friends and many others you touch along the way. God Bless you Joe.

“ Uncle Joe was thoughtful and sincere. He cared about people and was a positive influence in the lives of those he touched. He was funny - truly the life of the party wherever he went. He was family-oriented and adored his wife, daughters and grandkids. He exemplified a life well-lived. He will be missed. Rest In Peace Uncle Joe.

“ Joseph was so outgoing and friendly. He would never shy away from doing the unexpected...he was the life of the party and he became the family patriarch, a title he held so proudly. His greeting cards to family and friends usually included a personal hand written note which all enjoyed. I received my last one earlier this month in my birthday greeting in which he asked me to care for the less fortunate. Fittingly, this year the Catholic Church is celebrating the "Year of St. Joseph", his Patron Saint. Joseph was my Big Brother but also my best friend. God Bless Joseph and God Bless his family and all those who knew him. My personal note to Joe..."Till we meet again, Bro".
