“ A few years ago, Steve (Ferretti) and I spent some time with Aunt Jo. We brought our tablet and recorded family history. Aunt Jo shared stories that we had never heard before and it was a day filled with laughter and love! (And food!) She is a true angel.

“ I will miss you, Aunt Jo. You were always so loving, caring and kind. You opened your home to me as a child many times for some wonderful summer fun. I have so many fond memories. I cherish those moments. Thank you for being so sweet. And it's true, no one ever left your home hungry. You even sent us home with a basket full of goodies too. I love you. I will think of you always. Love, your niece, Mary Therese Ferretti

“ My Dearest Aunt Jo

How I loved you so. The gatherings growing up to the phone calls and visits as the years passed will be cherished by me forever. You are the sweetest soul who cared for us all so very much. Our bellies were always full and the kisses and hugs were never few. I will love and cherish you forever

Your niece Krysia (Christina)

My lovely grandmother passed this weekend. She was my rock in this world! For people who knew her, knew that she would feed you even if you werent hungry and then feed you more.

I have no words. I can't image life without her in it or how life will go on.

Well, she is now with her love once again. Love you with all my heart Josie!
