“ Les and I became friends when we were 6 years old as neighbors and best buddies in West Orange. We had our own little tribe of friends and that kid with all the freckles was one of my besties ! We were special friends thru high school and we would write and share our stories thru NotreDame for him and Syracuse for me! We'd see each other in vacations still great friends. After college I moved and Les went on to do his thing. We lost touch but I thought about him every so often I am thrilled to read he had a rich and full life and was happy. Rest easy old friend maybe we will meet again !

“ Les and I were roommates in our junior year at Notre Dame, when he looked like the guy in the fourth and fifth pictures in the album below. He was a great mate then and a joy to see and talk to in the decades since. ... Condolences to the entire Jandoli family.... Rest in peace, Les.

“ Still remember hitchhiking from ND to Iowa City with Les one Spring break (I think), back in '66 or so. Was wintry weather and we about froze, but made it there and back and wondered what we thinking about to make such a journey. Best that could be said is that we were good company for each other and I treasure the memory. Les, rest in peace.

“ I have had the pleasure of working side by side with Les over the last few years. Les taught me so much and I truly respected him and his knowledge. He was a great man who worked very hard for his clients. He often told me stories about his life and always had me laughing. Les often spoke about his grandchildren whom he loved dearly and always looked forward to seeing. I am deeply saddened that he was taken so soon. My sincere sympathy goes out to his wife, children and grandchildren during this difficult time.

“ Les was my first cousin. My dad and Les's mom were brother and sister. We moved to New Jersey when I was in 6th grade. The Jandoli's were living in New Jersey and I will never forget the first time I met Les. The Jandoli family came to our home to welcome us to NJ.
Les was 3 years older than me and he showed me his switch blade knife. I thought my cousin was so cool because he had a switch blade.
Over the years I continued to see how cool Les was ,not because of the switch blade but because he was genuinely a great guy. Rest In Peace. cuz.

“ I first met Les in 1983 when I was a Law Clerk in Family Court and Les was a matrimonial attorney. He was very kind and patient and had the right temperament for this type of work. I was very impressed . Later our paths crossed again when I became a Deputy Attorney General and Les and I both handled Workers Compensation matters. No matter how difficult the case or how busy your day, it was always made better if you had a case with Les. Les was a skilled attorney and a gentlemen. More importantly you were reminded everytime you saw him that above all else he was a really good man. He was fun and had a sharp wit that always hit the mark. I know that my opinion is shared by the entire Bench and Bar. I also know that we are all here for Karin and Les' family. We also always compared notes on grandchildren. I remember vividly just recently Les telling me how much he enjoyed being with his grandchildren. He was looking forward to a vacation that he was going to take with his grandkids. Since I retired recently Les and I were making plans to get together with our spouses for a nice dinner together. I could not have done that before I retired. As we all believe, we thought we had all the time in the world to do things. We put the dinner off until after the holidays. We never got to have that dinner. However I promise Les that Karin and I will have that dinner and hopefully many more.

“ As a nephew to Les, I'll always cherish our family vacations to the Jersey shore and what a jovial and witty uncle he was to me. I alway left with a number of jokes to share! Love from the Colorado Ramus family - Jason, Sophie, Harriet and Charlie
