“ I've sailed/raced with Mark for many years, he was always a gentleman on the water and off, but still a fierce competitor and always a credit to the sport of sailboat racing. It was a special moment for all of us for Mark to overcome his stroke induced handicaps and to skipper the sailing vessel Ippon to a first place finish in a major regatta in Annapolis last summer. The Ippon crew still talks about how great that moment was and we are all terribly saddened by his passing.
