I grew up with Pat and the O'Neill boys on Gransback st. Pat was My best friend my childhood crush. We were together every day growing up. But after he went to the Army we lost touch and eventually still found our way back to eachother. We would always keep in touch and have lots of conversations, share lots of laughs. Its still hard to believe I will no longer get random silly text from you. I know you are with Danny and Sean now. R.I.P. to my first best friend. You will always be loved and missed. Condolences to the family.

“ I've known the O'Neil family since i was 12. I went to St. Dom's with Dan. He was the very first guy I ever dated lol. We used to live a few streets away from each other in pennypack...But even after they moved, we kept in touch. I moved to Florida in 05, then Tx in 07, but always kept in touch. Pat was one of a kind...hands down one of the funniest people in the room. I used to work nightwork, and Pat would msg me out of the blue at 3am with some random ass movie quote from some random ass movie lol. That was our thing....for years! Lol. I'll miss that! I hope that wherever you are Pat, that you found Danny and Sean, and that you have finally found peace. Rest easy my friend. And to the O'Neil family, my condolences. You'll be in my prayers.

“ Where do I begin? Uncle Mike and I have been in your life since the day you were born. Phillies were in the World Series that day! You had the best stories, told them like you were an authentic story teller. The funniest one is when the cop caught up to you driving! We still laugh. Gonna miss you, but you'll carry on through the kid. Till we meet again. Kiss your brothers for us!

“ When Patrick was 5 he went to Disney with his grandmother. We met up with them for a couple of days. I still see him standing in line and laughing & giggling at my brother in law Bob. It was so infectious & bubbly & that is how I will always remember him. Much love to the family.❤️ Tish Dougherty
