

Adam Robert Blasucci

May 31, 1977 - December 26, 2020

Adam Robert Blasucci, of Cinnaminson, Nj, passed away suddenly on December 26, 2020. Loving son of Robert and Marjorie Blasucci (nee Hahnan). Dear brother to the late Daniel Thomas Blasucci. Survived by his grandfather Harold Hahnan.

A gathering of friends and family will be held on Tuesday, December 29th from 7:00pm to 9:00pm at Givnish of Cinnaminson, 1200 Route 130 North, and again on Wednesday, December 30th from 9:00am to 10:00am. His funeral mass will be celebrated at St. Charles Borromeo in Cinnaminson at 10:30am. His funeral service will be live streamed. Masks and social distancing measures are in effect. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Adam's name to the Muscular Dystrophy Association, MDA.org.

Previous Events

Visitation

DEC 29. 7:00 PM - 9:00 PM (ET)

Givnish Funeral Home Cinnaminson
1200 Route 130 N
Cinnaminson, NJ 08077
(856) 829-8000
info@givnish.com
<https://www.givnish.com>

Visitation

DEC 30. 9:00 AM - 10:00 AM (ET)

Givnish Funeral Home Cinnaminson
1200 Route 130 N
Cinnaminson, NJ 08077
(856) 829-8000
info@givnish.com
<https://www.givnish.com>

Mass

DEC 30. 10:30 AM (ET)

St. Charles Borromeo Church
2500 Branch Pike & Pomona Road
Cinnaminson, NJ 08077

Tribute Wall

“ Givnish Funeral Home created a Tribute Video in memory of Adam Robert Blasucci

Givnish Funeral Home - December 28, 2020 at 02:53 PM

“ Givnish Funeral Home created a Webcast in memory of Adam Robert Blasucci

Givnish Funeral Home - December 27, 2020 at 09:31 AM

“ Adam Robert Blasucci

September 09, 2022 at 01:27 AM

JB

“ Mr. and Mrs. Blascucci, I had the privilege to be an assistant in the Graphic Arts class at BCSSD, and Adam was one of the joys in the class, he never gave up on anything. Loved him and his determination. My sincere thoughts at this difficult time, Also will keep you both in my prayers. Sincerely, Mrs. Jane Brock

Jane Brock - January 03, 2021 at 10:11 AM

GF

“ Margie and Bob, we are so sorry to hear about Adam's passing. It's never easy losing a loved one especially a child. Please know you are in our thoughts and we send you love and hugs to give you strength through this most difficult time. Sincerely, Gail and Jim Furrer

Gail Furrer - December 29, 2020 at 08:47 AM

“ Sentiments of Serenity Spray was purchased for the family of Adam Robert Blascucci.

December 28, 2020 at 10:35 PM

LL

“ Dear Margie and Bob,
I was so sad to hear of Adam's passing. I have always had a fondness for your family, all the way back to the Githens days. Although we have not crossed paths in a long while, you have periodically crossed my mind. I was always amazed at the strength and love you showed your boys. May you have peace and comfort knowing you were the best parents to them. You are in my thoughts and am sending my love your way. Lorraine Levinson

Lorraine Levinson - December 28, 2020 at 09:38 PM

WB

Adam was a good soul. He and I had a few things in common. Our love for music, comics and sci-fi. We always had something to talk about. I felt bad that the pandemic curtailed his outings to the various conventions and movie theaters this past year. But he didn't let it get him down. He kept a stiff upper lip as the British would say. I'm going to miss him dearly and the updates of any Marvel and DC movies and TV shows. Now he's free of all the ventilators and wheelchairs that were constraints to his physical existence. He is going on his spiritual journey and I hope that when he crosses over the Rainbow bridge, Danny and Mocha are on the other side awaiting him. God bless him and his family. May he rest in peace.

William Burke - December 29, 2020 at 03:24 PM

 Donna Di Meo

Adam,
You are the epitome of strength and character. A true definition of the word HERO. You made a full life for yourself regardless of your Muscular Dystrophy. You spoke up for the handicapped, because you knew firsthand how difficult the journey. You were a ray of sunshine to your Mom and Dad. Now you can go be with Danny, your brother, your partner in everything you could do together before he went home. I (we), your Grandpop, will miss you. But you fought the Good fight and God saw your pain, so the Lord brought you Home with Him. He has united you Danny and all the other believers in Jesus, until we All meet again on Our Glorious day. Love Grandpop n Donna. Forever in our Hearts

Donna Di Meo - December 30, 2020 at 12:30 PM

“ 95 files added to the album Life Tributes

Givnish Funeral Home - December 28, 2020 at 02:45 PM

JT

“ Adam was a tremendous film buff. I enjoyed this about him. He was also a budding filmmaker himself, as he did a commendable job on a video he made years ago. I was extremely impressed with his technique and ability to tell a compelling story. I shall always pray for him.

*With praise and prayers,
Joe Torina*

Joe Torina - December 28, 2020 at 12:04 PM

RB

“ 3 files added to the album Memories Album

ROBERT BLASUCCI - December 28, 2020 at 12:02 PM

“ Divine Peace Bouquet was purchased for the family of Adam Robert Blasucci.

December 27, 2020 at 02:09 PM

“ 3 files added to the album Memories Album

Robert Blasucci - December 27, 2020 at 08:53 AM

“ Today, I lost a really good friend. I have known Adam since he was about 10. Adam and I, along with others in our MD group basically grow up together going through many ups and down. My best memories of Adam are his love of comics, the movie he made and the written peace he write about real super hero. You will forever be missed.

Andrew Vizquete - December 26, 2020 at 09:07 PM

Dear Marge and Bob, My deepest sympathy to you in the loss of Adam. I will always remember the great times we had in Ocean City and at Sue's house. Two wonderful brothers are together again in heaven. I am sure Danny has the biggest smile on his face. Sending lots of love and prayers. Judy Bilotti

Judy Bilotti - December 28, 2020 at 05:10 PM

PB

“ The most cherished memory of Adam was when he was very young and I called to talk to him. He told his parents that he was eating his chocolate donut and he couldn't talk to his Aunt Patricia. That was a constant joke we always had. I will always miss and love you. Til we meet again. Aunt Patricia and Uncle Richie.

Patricia Beier - December 26, 2020 at 08:07 PM

DG

“ *DG
Dawn Gregory
a few seconds ago
I can't believe that Adam is gone. I watched him grow up My heart has an empty feeling. I will treasure our summers together at Mountain Lake House. We all had such a great time. Adam I know you are now with Danny watching over all of us. Love you*

Dawn Gregory - December 26, 2020 at 05:23 PM

SC

“ *I have known Adam since he was a baby There are many memories of his growing up especially at Mountain Lake House in Marshalls Creek Pa My children and Adam has many fun times along with his family. I am truly blessed to have know him and he will forever be in my heart. Love you and Miss you
Sue Connors*

Susan Connors - December 26, 2020 at 05:07 PM

DG

I can't believe that Adam is gone. I watched him grow up My heart has an empty feeling. I will treasure our summers together at Mountain Lake House. We all had such a great time. Adam I know you are now with Danny watching over all of us. Love you

Dawn Gregory - December 26, 2020 at 05:19 PM

RB

Who are the Real Superheroes?

By Adam Blasucci

Over the last few days I have been thinking about superheroes. There are different types of superheroes. Some come from other planets and have superpowers. Some superheroes use technology and their wits to fight villains and save the planet. They wear capes and spandex and appear larger-than-life in comic books, cartoons and movies. I enjoy superheroes, but what I was really thinking about was the true heroes that I know.

By definition a superhero is a hero, especially in children's comic books and television cartoons, possessing extraordinary and often magical powers.

My friends and I have Muscular Dystrophy. We do not fight super villains or crime. We don't have magical powers or x-ray vision. My friends are heroes of a different sort. Everyday we fight a progressive and debilitating disease. Superheroes may have bionic body parts or ride in special vehicles, like the Batmobile. Some of us have custom wheelchairs; some of us have tracheostomies and use ventilators. We even operate our wheelchairs with fiber optics and can control a computer with our voices. I'd call that extraordinary or even magical power. Rather than performing superhuman feats, we live our lives and don't let our disabilities keep us down. We face trials, like pneumonia and hospitalizations and surgeries; superheroes face their own trials in each issue of their comic books. We have learned to live with our disabilities and the challenges that come with them.

The definition of a hero: a man of distinguished courage or ability admired for his brave deeds and noble qualities; regarded as a model or ideal. This is how I see my friends and myself. We're not a team like the X-Men or the Justice League. We're just a bunch of guys who try to enjoy life like everyone else. Sometimes that takes a lot of courage. Our experience is similar to that of a superhero; sometimes they see their powers as both a curse and a blessing. Speaking for myself, I'd gladly exchange the pats on the back from admirers for a normal life. We may not see ourselves as heroes, but others are inspired by the way we live our lives despite our disease.

Comic book heroes seem fearless and have superhuman strength and powers. A real hero is just an ordinary person facing extraordinary circumstances and handling them as best they can. Our true powers lie in the way we live our lives with dignity and courage and love.

Today I lost a friend to Muscular Dystrophy. He was a hero and I will miss him. This is a tough time for my friends and me. The thing about death is that if we remember our friends and loved ones; they will always be with us. This piece is dedicated to the memory of Nicholas, Chris, Frankie and Brian, Eric, Scott & Kim, friends who have died in recent years & now my brother Danny due to complications related to Muscular Dystrophy. Now Adam is added to the list.

This is dedicated to all my friends whom I consider Superheroes.

Robert Blasucci - December 27, 2020 at 09:23 AM

CB

*My family and I are saddened by the loss of Adam, one of the very SPECIAL people we were fortunate to meet through a mutual friend. We have fond memories of the 4th of July barbeques and Ocean City, Maryland vacations. The Blasucci family has been in my prayers everyday and now my prayers can go directly to Adam and Danny I feel honored to have a central line to heaven. Our deepest sympathy
Carol, Tara and Joseph
The Barsalona Family*

carol A barsalona - December 27, 2020 at 12:34 PM

JW

We are so sorry to hear about your loss of Adam. Our prayers go out to both of you for God to bless you with all the graces you need. You are two special people who have cared for and loved two beautiful children who certainly are heroes in heaven. Brothers together again. Bless you both. Fondly, Jane and Dave White.

Jane and Dave White - January 17, 2021 at 05:05 PM