“ You meet few people in life that you can always consider a friend for life. Adam will be missed by all who knew him. Wish I could have spent more time with Adam, but the time we did spend together on the hockey rink, traveling to tournaments, at concerts, and down the shore I will always remember. Rest In Peace Brother.

“ Prayers and thoughts are going out to the Bush family. God has himself one great angel with a huge heart and great smile. I worked with Adam at the Sub Shoppe and all you could do was but love him as he was one of your own kids. He was kind, sweet, made you laugh, did funny things and loved to joke. Adam please watch over your family. Your going to really be missed. Love u buddy. Until we meet again.

Adam my #2 son, where do I begin!! At this moment, I am heartbroken that you are no longer with us. The only thing that makes it a little easier is that you called me on Christmas and we had such a wonderful conversation, we talked about the holidays, your new cell phone and Matt's good news about their upcoming baby arrival. I was driving up 295 the other day just crying my eyes out thinking of you; and then remembered your last message to me was "I miss your singing". So Adam, I sang as loud as I could so I know that you heard me up there in heaven!! Every time I get sad, I will sing for you and I am sure you will have all your other angels dancing up there in heaven!! I miss you so much and there will never be another person like you ever!!! xoxo

“ I knew Adam for a pretty long time, so I considered him a friend of mine, but he was a very close friend of my fiancé Jim. My most favorite memory and the time that really made me realize what a caring and sweet person he was, was when I was in the hospital after having our first daughter, Hayden. Jim had to run home to let our dog out and Adam had come up to the hospital to meet the new baby. He sat with me for about an hour, held baby Hayden, and even brought us a gift. He didn't mind that his friend wasn't there, he sat with me and loved on the baby, and made me laugh. I appreciated that visit and every time he visited us. Rest in peace Adam, you will surely be missed.

What I will remember always about Adam is the love and compassion that he had for his cousin, Steve, from the time they were just little guys. They both held a special place in their hearts for each other. It could be years between our seeing Adam but he always welcomed us with love. We will all truly miss him. Our heartfelt sympathy and prayers goes out to Bob, Michelle and Nicole. We love you all and are here for you.
