Over the not so many years we have lost so many friends, family, loved ones. On the heels of the past losses. This one really hit me hard. For the past few years I have been distant from old friends. That I truly regret. But I will never regret the time, the love and friendship that I shared with me and my family. To me. He is not gone because he will always be in my thoughts.

“ Al was one of those guys you always want around. My experiences with him were always so positive. He wanted to have fun, and wanted you to have fun with him. It felt like he had life figured out. I have a lot of great memories with him, and glad that he was a part of my life.

One memory of the two of us up late, and deciding hey, let's go to the city instead of go to bed.

Al: "We're going to need five thousand dollars. How much money do you have?"

Me: "Eight dollars"

Al: "Wake up your dad"

I could only find one picture of him with Morty, but look at the thumbs-up. See? Always positive!

“ Uncle Albert (Bubby) was one of the hardest workers I've ever met. Incredible attention to detail. He was a strong man with a strong presence. A fantastic cook and prankster. I'll always remember the days you would bring to me work with you as a young boy. I know you're having a great time reuniting with Grandmom, Pop Pop, and Aunt Gail up there. Keep watch over us. We love you.
