“ *Alex hired me to work with him at Merion Golf Club in September of 1965.
I still remember all the good times and laughs we shared before he departed to head up Jack Jolly & Son.
He was a good man and I hope he is still "Swinging the club head" in Heaven.
My sincerest sympathy to his family and friends.*

“ Dennis, Barbara, Ed & Maryellen:

Joe Perrone contacted me and told me of your Dad's passing. I wanted all of you to know that I thought your Dad was such a nice gentleman and always a pleasure to see at the office. It was meeting families like yours that made my job so enjoyable. I watched the video and it was very heartwarming. What beautiful parents and memories you have. May the love of family and friends help you at this most difficult time.

“ Love you Dad - thank you & Mom for sharing love, instilling good values and providing guidance that helped us find our ways in life. It was especially nice to get to share memories of your youth and journey in life during the last decade! We have all been blessed to have such a nice family. -Rob *Shadow sends his love & prayers too.
