“ Bill and Will, Please accept my condolences on the death of your beautiful wife and mother. While Amanda and I had not been in touch for quite some time, I have nothing but great memories of her. Heaven has certainly gained another angel and I'm sure she is having a sweet reunion with her beloved father, Rick. My thoughts and prayers are with you both.

“ Our little A was small but mighty. She loved life and her family. I watched her fight her battle with courage and dignity. She was graceful and absolutely amazingly strong. She did it her way and was so admired by all who knew her. She remained humble even with all her accomplishments in life. We will miss her strong, wonderful spirit but we know that she couldn't stay here with us any longer. She loved her dash with purpose and might. The world won't be the same with out her. Love you Little sister "A"...more than anything. You were a great compliment to our family and will always be loved and missed but never, ever forgotten. We will keep your boys safe and well loved. No worries.
