“ I am very sorry to hear about the passing of sister/daughter. It is difficult to express a condolence that would provide some kind of comfort and "thoughts and prayers" seems to really fall short. I can say that an older Sister of Mercy passed on this advice at my mom's funeral and it helps me. She said that all of good deeds, all of love and all of the smiles remember...because all of the memories are her way of telling you that she is still with you. Prayers for you all.
