“ To Angie, I know how much your family meant to you. I'll always remember your stories about family celebrations and the preparation, but hearing your enthusiam was the best part. We spoke the week before Xmas and your only concern was spending Xmas with the family. I'm glad you were able to experience it and the Eagles Superbowl victory.
You will be missed!!!

“ I was looking through photos and came across this one from the 2005 family reunion. I remember many fun holidays we shared when we were younger as I watched the three grow up. Although we've lost touch over the years, Angie will be missed. My thoughts and prayers are with her family at this difficult time.

“ Angie was "the straw that stirs the drink". For the 9 years that I knew and worked with Ang on nearly a daily basis she was a breath of positive light in my world. I loved her and many times over the years, Angie surprised me with her kindness and generosity. We laughed long and often. I also admire her courage. Angie faced each and every challenge with strength and great dignity.

I've struggled coming to terms with her transitioning. She loved talking about her kids. How I became a Phillies and a 76ers fan I will never know and it was an absolute that the Eagles would prevail in the Super Bowl.

As the days past I will summon on our angel, Angie to help us through challenging times and circumstances. Thank you Angie for all you gave to so many!

“ Having worked with Angie over the past 18 years at Teknion, I am heartbroken. She was the heart and soul of our Public Sector team, kind, thoughtful, always wiling to assist, even when juggling so many of the responsibilities she had. Over the phone, you would always feel her smiling, even when taking on a problem. Our team truly considered Angie the MVP of our program. Angie was loved dearly and will be missed tremendously. My condolences go out to Angie's family and friends.

“ Angie was always willing to talk. Whether it was about work or family or sports. She made the day better with her interest in everygthing going on.

Angie would have won the employee of the year award every year, if we would have been allowed to continue to present it to her.

I miss her dearly, but she is happy in Heaven.

Thank you for sharing her with us.

“ Angie was always happy. She was happy as a person but also happy to see everyone and never minded taking on tons of things even though her plate was already overflowing. She was loved by all and one of the kindest people I have ever had the chance to know. She will be so missed and I am very sorry for this significant loss. My thoughts go out to the entire family and work community.

“ I am so grateful to have a lifetime of memories to choose from. One of my favorites is anytime the 3 of us, (Angie, Donna and myself), were together. Something about that sister bond I guess. We had the best times. We were silly, we laughed really hard, we danced, made jokes and sometimes we cried. We were together and that is my best memory.

As a vendor for Teknion, I worked with Angie for a decade or more. Angie was so good at what she did that she made me better at what I do, but that isn't the amazing part. The amazing part is that she was such a joy to work with that I considered her a friend. I never hesitated to call her because work would get done and her instructions would seem so clear and logical that i would wonder why i would do it any other way. And if I had a comment, she would consider it and discard it or use it as was best. And when I had reason to drop by the Teknion offices on other business I always contrived to wander by her desk. She will be missed.
