

Ann Gulino

August 3, 1933 - July 20, 2013

Ann Dolores Gulino (nee Daiutolo) "Tootsie" of Cinnaminson, passed away Saturday, July 20, 2013 at the age of 79. Born August 3, 1933, in Philadelphia, PA, she was the daughter of the late Carmine and Carmela (Ferullo) Daiutolo and sister to the late Rosie, Tessie, Marie, Dick, Betty, Olympia and Ray. Tootsie was the beloved wife, for 58 years, of Angelo Gulino, and the loving mother of Diane Gulino (late Charles Hargrove), Andi Gulino-Veith (Bob Veith) and Shelly Gulino (Dennis Whitlock). Loving grandmother "My Tootsie" of Robert and Eric Veith, Christina Hargrove, Daniel Myers and Vanessa Rodriguez. She is also survived by many relatives and friends. All are invited to Tootsie's Life Celebration on Saturday commencing 9:30 am at St. Charles Borromeo Church, Branch Pike, Cinnaminson, NJ, followed by her funeral Mass at 10:30 am. Interment Lakeview Memorial Park in Cinnaminson. Donations to St. Jude Children's Research, 262 Danny Thomas Place, Memphis, TN 38105 would be appreciated. To share your fondest memory of Tootsie please visit www.SnoverGivnish.com

Tribute Wall

“ Ann Gulino

September 09, 2022 at 01:27 AM

“ Dear Angelo and Family, We were so saddened to hear of Ann's passing. We just found out yesterday, August 19th. You and she were always so nice to our girls when they use to visit Squiddie. They still talk about that. Please know that our prayers are with you and your family.Lovingly, Dave and Wendy Bryan

Wendy Bryan - August 20, 2013 at 12:00 AM

“ dear old friends,diane, andi, and my best friend in cinnaminson middle school shelly.i was so sorry to hear about the passing of your dear mother. oh the memories.. where do i begin ? she was such a unique lady,just a delight.i never forgot your mother after all these years. the most memorable were the crab trips when she would warn your dad about "small craft warnings"...and shelly and i were worried we perhaps could not go crabbing the next day.but of course we went!!thanks mr gulino for the hysteria you provided us as teenagers. you always made me feel so welcome in your house. i am probably the only person beside yourself and your daughters that know where kwajelin is and what le-he moy is. !sorry about the spelling.so many memories!ll also never forget mrs gulino telling shelly and i not to hang our faces out of the window on the way to aunt betty's for fear we would for sure get bels palsey..i cannot express my sorrow for you all. she's of course up in heaven making the best spaghetti and crabs god has ever tasted! for sure.love and miss you allsympathies from myself and my familylove,lorraine preston.

July 26, 2013 at 12:00 AM