“ I had the joy of helping Ann with functioning day to day as companion/caregiver! I felt such a closeness with her as we shared stories, my family, our Jesus, devotions, laughs & I can say i looked forward to seeing her on the days I was scheduled! Such a sweet lady, i'm glad we crossed paths, we enjoyed our time together! Her daughter has been our neighbor for 30 some years, & that is how we met! I will miss Ann, but I know she is happy in the presence of our Lord God, & i can't help but smile! My sincere condolences &prayers for her family as they grieve her loss!!

“ Your mom was a sweet lovely lady. I had the great pleasure of taking care of her when she lived along the river bank of Delanco. She was more then a client. She was like a friend and family member. We had some great talks and laughs. I was sadden to hear of her passing. She was a women of great strength and whom I think of fondly. Nancy Snyder
