I met Anthony Corradetti ions ago when my sister, Gloria, began to date the twin brother of Anthony's sister's husband, Tony. Anthony and I were in our late teens and we dated once but it seems like a lifetime ago. He ended up with a wonderful wife and I ended up with a wonderful husband. I became a widow at a very young age and left Pennsylvania never to return but my sister, Gloria, would keep me abreast of all the family news. I will never forget that my husband and I actually baby sat Mary and Tony's children the day Anthony married Mary Beth. Over the years I never again had contact with Anthony and Mary Beth but I was made aware of all the wonderful events happening in their lives because I never lost touch with those two boys I babysat - Anthony's Corradetti's two nephews, Joe and Anthony Paesani. My sister, Gloria eventually married Lou Paesani, their father's twin brother. Those two boys are still in my life after all these years and stay in touch with me despite the fact I live in Orlando, Florida and they live up north . It was through those boys I was made aware of Anthony's passing. It brought back memories of some really good times we shared at Anthony and Mary Beth's house. Some good memories of both he and Mary Bath came to mind when I heard of his passing; I was very saddened at the loss of this larger-than-life, dynamic man who loved God and family. Despite the fact we had very little contact, he was such a memorable part of my life's journey and he will be missed by all. May he rest in eternal peace; God bless his soul. My deepest sympathy to Mary Beth, their children and grandchildren.

“ *Dear Maryanne and family,
Alicia and I am so sorry to hear about Tony passing. He was such a dear friend and Emmaus brother to me. We spent so many Simbongabes at St. Charles each Christmas. Tony made sure the large candles were out front.
We spent so many wonderful times with you both at your Ocean City home.

He and you will always be in my prayers.
Love to you both.

“ Dear Marianne, Maribeth and the entire Corradetti family,

Our thoughts are with you all at this most difficult of times. Although we only came to know Anthony during troubled times, his strength and grace was ever present. May Anthony rest in peace; may you all find comfort knowing he is in a better place; and may you all find comfort in your fond memories of Anthony.

*Most sincerely,
Randy Lafferty and your friends at Cooper Levenson*

“ *Dear Corradetti Family,
My deepest sympathies on the death of Anthony. I remember him from my ten years as Associate priest at St. Charles Borromeo. His love for his family and his care for the church was as large as he was. He always had a kind word for me. May he rest in peace and may you share many happy memories when you gather together to celebrate his memory.*
