

Anthony L. DiLoreto

October 2, 1965 - February 4, 2023

Anthony L. DiLoreto, age 57, passed away peacefully on Saturday, February 4th, 2023, at his home in Medford Lakes surrounded by his family. He was born in Cherry Hill, NJ and was lovingly raised by his parents, Marie and Louis DiLoreto.

Tony enjoyed a long and successful career in law enforcement. He began as a Sheriff's Officer in Camden County, then moved to Lumberton Police Department as a patrolman. He rose through the ranks at LTPD, achieving the title of Detective, Detective Sergeant., and finally Police Chief. He held that position proudly for 7 years until his retirement.

Tony also owned and operated a successful landscaping business, Extra Yard Landscaping, for 28 years. He loved being outdoors and working beside his many dedicated employees, including his sons.

One of the highlights of his life was playing basketball under Coach Jim Crawford at Camden Catholic High School alongside his best friends, whom he remained close with and were always there for him. He continued his love of basketball by coaching his sons' teams and attending all of their games.

Tony was a die-hard Philadelphia sports fan. He especially loved and appreciated his sister-in-law, Kathy Mair, who made his dream of attending multiple World Series' and an Eagles Super Bowl Championship a reality.

There was not a more perfect day for Anthony than spending an afternoon under the pier at Margate Beach with a Blue Moon in hand and listening to Pearl Jam Radio with his wife, Kim.

Beloved husband of 31 years to Kim (nee Mair). Loving father of Anthony, Marc, Darren and Dante. Brother of Louis (Kathie) DiLoreto. Tony is survived by his mother-in-law, Doris Udry, his sister-in-law, Kathy Mair, and brother-in-law Michael (Julie) Mair. After 53 years, Tony was able to find and connect with his birth parents, Carol Anne Humes and Gary Brestle. They were able to enjoy a loving and happy relationship. Carol was especially over-the-moon about finding her only child, and was able to visit with him often.

Tony left this world the same way he lived in it: strong, brave and thinking of his family and friends above himself. His unrelenting work-ethic, strength of character, sense of humor and dedication to those that he loved will be forever missed by those who knew him.

After the Eagles win this weekend's Super Bowl, Tony's final wishes will be honored with a gathering of friends and family, to be held on Wednesday, February 15th, 2023 from 9:30AM – 11:00AM at Givnish of Marlton, 398 East Main St. His memorial service will begin at 11:00AM. Interment will take place at Park View Cemetery at Kirby's Mills, 25 Fostertown Rd., Medford. Visit their website at www.parkviewcemeterynj.com

If desired, donations may be made in Anthony's memory to <https://p2p.onecause.com/raise-your-way/anthony-diloreto-2>

To share your memories of Tony, please visit www.Givnish.com.

Previous Events

Gathering of Family and Friends

FEB 15. 9:30 AM - 11:00 AM (ET)

Givnish Funeral Home Marlton
398 E Main St
Marlton, NJ 08053
(856) 452-5090
info@givnish.com

Memorial Service

FEB 15. 11:00 AM (ET)

Givnish Funeral Home Marlton
398 E Main St
Marlton, NJ 08053
(856) 452-5090
info@givnish.com

Inurnment

FEB 15. 12:30 PM (ET)

Park View Cemetery
Medford, NJ

Tribute Wall

“ Givnish Funeral Home created a Tribute Video in memory of Anthony L. DiLoreto

Givnish Funeral Home - February 14, 2023 at 09:36 AM

Absolutely beautiful tribute. Anthony was the kindest person I've ever met in high school. I'm so very sorry for your loss. May peace and memories help you through this difficult time

Annette Simmons - February 19, 2023 at 08:51 PM

AM

“ Amy lit a candle in memory of Anthony L. DiLoreto

amy - February 26, 2023 at 05:17 PM

AM

“ Anthony and I were tight nit friends he made me smile and laugh even on my worst days he helped me when I was having problems with my son he was an awesome cop friend and father we would pass each other on the road he would smile and wave I was devistated when I read on our police blog that he had passed I cried all day in work I will miss him I won't ever forget him he will always be in my heart love u Anthony love Amy ❤️❤️❤️❤️

amy - February 26, 2023 at 05:16 PM

JC

“ Tony was a police officer, a businessman and so much more, but I will remember him most as being a nice person. Always friendly and happy no matter what he may have been experiencing. He was a pleasure to have known and I know he is missed but sometimes God does take the good ones. RIP Tony

Joe Conlin - February 14, 2023 at 11:03 AM

RN

“ Rich, Nanci and Nicki purchased the Peaceful White Lilies Basket for the family of Anthony L. DiLoreto.

Rich, Nanci and Nicki - February 13, 2023 at 01:04 PM

RB

“ Renee & Paul Bryson purchased the Divine Peace Bouquet for the family of Anthony L. DiLoreto.

Renee & Paul Bryson - February 13, 2023 at 11:35 AM

“ Beautiful in Blue was purchased for the family of Anthony L. DiLoreto.

February 13, 2023 at 10:50 AM

“ Louis J Delota purchased the Sentiments of Serenity Spray for the family of Anthony L. DiLoreto.

Louis J Delota - February 12, 2023 at 03:13 PM

“ Lou Taffy and family purchased the Strength & Solace Spray for the family of Anthony L. DiLoreto.

Lou Taffy and family - February 12, 2023 at 03:13 PM

“ Tony D as I knew him was a first class guy. Always even keeled and patient. My son worked for his landscaping business in his younger years and Tony helped him out numerous times. I had the pleasure of repairing his equipment and we enjoyed a lot of laughs over some of things that had to be fixed. I will miss our chats when Tony would come by to pick up a piece of equipment I had finished fixing. My family's thoughts and prayers go out to Kim and the boys.

Rich Matthews - February 12, 2023 at 07:36 AM

CD

“ I am very sad to hear that my cousin has passed away. I grew up on the same street in East Camden with Anthony and Louis. I am praying for his children and his wife. RIP cousin Anthony

Chris DiLoreto - February 09, 2023 at 08:32 AM

SF

“ Anthony will be missed by his Camden Catholic Family class of 84!!!! Condolences to the family keeping you in prayer and know that others care!!!!!! God Bless💜 Sonya Freeman classmate of Anthony class of 84.

Sonya Freeman - February 08, 2023 at 11:10 PM

LK

“ I got to know Anthony through his incredible family, and enjoyed sharing so many memorable afternoons and evenings at Vaughan Hall for Medford Lakes basketball. We bonded from Day 1, and I will always cherish our friendship of nearly 25 years. I hope the memories of this wonderful man will help sustain the family during this time of grief.

lewis kalb - February 08, 2023 at 04:55 PM

JC

“ Anthony was tops in so many ways, almost close to being perfect. Father, husband, police officer, worker,all he excelled at. He was a nephew any uncle would be in awe of. He and his equally wonderful wife, Kim, faced all of their lifetime obstacles with patience, forbearance, and selfless dignity.....raising four exceptional sons. Gone to soon, but remembered forever...

Jim Carr - February 08, 2023 at 03:17 PM

TB

“ Anthony, it was an honor to had known you. You were a great man and I thank you for your service to the community. To the DiLoreto Family, on behalf of the Baker Family, please accept our condolences. Anthony was such a beloved man and a big part of the Camden Catholic Family. It was always great talking to Anthony. I will miss him.

Ty Baker - February 08, 2023 at 11:16 AM

RS

“ So sorry to here this, Tony was always a pleasure to be around. I can remember the days in Lumberton. I was the head Mechanic that maintained the police units, Always had a smile and can remember the first day he started his patrols. My prayers to his family for sure.
Ron Skeenes

Ron Skeenes - February 08, 2023 at 06:11 AM

RP

“ My condolences to the family. It has been many years since I have seen Anthony. I remember him and his brother Lou from our days hanging at the Knights of Columbus in Camden when we were kids.

Rick Pennestri

Richard Pennestri - February 07, 2023 at 10:39 PM

EM

“ It is hard to believe that 45 years of friendship has passed by this quickly. Playing youth sports, HS & College basketball together gave me some of the best memories of my life. I learned how to be a better person watching you become a husband, raise beautiful children and work hard to provide a great life for your family. Your infectious smile is forever etched in my soul. If I didn't say it enough then here it is again..THANK YOU my brother for sharing your life with me. When I see you again have Buffalo Chicken Nachos and Blue Moon waiting. You are My Man❤️
Duke Martz

Elwood Duke Martz - February 07, 2023 at 08:20 PM

PW

“ Anthony I will always remember you as that rambunctious little boy visiting our house with Aunt Marie and Uncle Lou and little Lou back in the day. I know that your Mom and Dad would have been proud of the man that you became, and the family you raised. May you rest in peace dear cousin, 🙏💙 Patricia DiLoreto Weidemoyer

Patricia DiLoreto Weidemoyer - February 07, 2023 at 07:50 PM

ES

So many memories from my younger years on Rosedale Ave. Many visits with Aunt Marie and Uncle Lou and you and Lil Lou. My heart is saddened knowing what you have been through. My condolences to Kim and boys. My you rest in peace Cousin❤️ Elaine DiLoreto Szymanski

Elaine DiLoreto Szymanski - February 08, 2023 at 09:13 AM

LU

“ Our prayers and high hopes were with Anthony throughout his battle. We were heartbroken when we were notified of his passing. I always remember joking with Anthony about who was the better cop. I always knew it was you and judging by your accomplishments, I'd say I was right. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his wife Kim and his family. ”

Larry & Donna Udry - February 07, 2023 at 06:25 PM

“ Peaceful White Lilies Basket was purchased for the family of Anthony L. DiLoreto. ”

February 07, 2023 at 06:06 PM

KC

“ I cannot even begin to put into words how deeply saddened I was to hear of Anthony's illness and his passing. The memory that always come to my mind of him was when he was an altar boy at St. Joseph's Church in Camden. My sincerest heartfelt sympathy to the entire family. May the good Lord give you all the strength during this beyond difficult time. Rest easy my sweet altar boy❤️🙏 ”

Kathy Racobaldo Cannon - February 07, 2023 at 04:06 PM

RB

A am truly heartbroken with the lost of Tony (RIP) His wife and son's can keep their heads up thinking of their husband n father.

He will be truly missed by many🙏
A great lost to our community
Anything the family needs please let me know!

robert Brittain - February 07, 2023 at 04:37 PM

EM

“ After Tony met his birth mother Carol Humes, who is my best friend, I met

Tony he was amazing, always polite, always a smile and always so wonderful to Carol..She appreciated every moment she spent with Tony and his wonderful wife Kim. He told Carol when they met if you like me you will love my wife, and she did those two bonded. It was an honor to have know him. My heart is broken for the family and Carol who adored Tony.

Eleanor Murray - February 07, 2023 at 03:46 PM

MC

I am so heartbroken about the loss of Anthony. I prayed so hard for healing for him but God must have needed him more. He truly was such a beautiful soul and I will miss him. My thoughts and prayers are with Kim and the boys that in time the sorrow they feel so much now will bring back the many happy memories they made together. There are so many wonderful memories I have that will be with me forever. Rip I love you. Hugs and prayers to Kim and the boys. I love you all.

marianne corse - February 07, 2023 at 11:32 PM

CM

I am so grateful to have shared the last few years with you as my first cousin! In that short period of time, I felt an instant connection as family. I always enjoyed texts and even phone calls just to check in with each other. I am heartbroken for Kim and the boys and will keep them all in my prayers. Anthony, please give my mom a hug and kiss for me! I know she is ecstatic for your reunion with her! May you rest in peace

Candace McKune - February 08, 2023 at 11:31 AM

JL

Sorry to hear about Anthony , it was always a pleasure to spend time with Anthony. A good father, husband, teammate and friend. Rest in peace, anthony.

Jim lang - February 08, 2023 at 08:33 PM

Jl

Anthony was my cousin, me an my twin brother an his brother Louis had such great times growing up we laughed 😄 an cried 😭 together he was a great cousin to have his love is eareplacable. So sorry to his family.

Joan Israel - February 09, 2023 at 10:26 AM