“ My cousin was a vibrant active person. She was always sharing. I remember the pride she took with her garden and the wonderful meals and recipes she provided. But her main joy was her family. Never forgotten love Antoinette. Cousin Annette

“ I have many memories of my Aunt Net starting with her Christmas dinners. Aunt Net was always dressed in a fabulous outfit and served a wonderful dinner, she was an awesome host. Many more great memories include summer days with her lounging on the beach and nights on the “boards”. Whenever I strolled into her home I was always met with a warm greeting making me feel like I was home.

“ My first memory of my beautiful sister-in-law ,Angie, was an invitation to Thanksgiving dinner! With a house bursting with family I had never met ,she was warm, welcoming and immediately put me at ease. Never had I seen a table so beautifully set or food so plentiful and delicious. Despite this , she was calm and served dish after dish in the most organized manner leaving conversation flowing and laughter and full stomachs guaranteed. Mind you, this was with three young children.

That was just the beginning of a relationship enjoyed over the years. How I admired her energy, and devotion to her family! Her wisdom in raising children was gratefully accepted and I am so happy to have witnessed the results of Bert and her parenting skills knowing of the close knit , successful and loving family they have raised. Together they inspired us to rent and ultimately buy a home in OC. My family enjoyed the best of memories there.

There are so many times shared, especially in the early years and when my husband passed my family continued to be a part of hers. How thankful I am for her honest, warm acceptance of that young teen who helped me become one of a very large extended family! Be sure I will treasure and be comforted my remembrances of her strength and times shared.
