“ I only just heard of Antonia's passing and I am deeply saddened by the news. She was more than just a neighbor to my Grandmom, Mary Cloran for many years until she sold her house recently. She always made us feel like a part of the family. I have so many fond childhood memories playing with her granddaughter Jess and catching pasta in the basement. A few years ago (pre-covid) my Dad, Danny Cloran and I went over to have a cooking night with Antonia. We made fresh pasta from scratch in the basement and kneaded the dough by hand. We let it rest and went upstairs to chat and sip some of her homemade wine. We laughed and talked about so many wonderful memories. Dinner was absolutely delicious and the entire night was a wonderful memory that I'll cherish forever. Sending love and healing to the family.

“ More than just a neighbor, she was my friend. We had many delicious cups of early morning coffee and of course her delicious biscotti's. Her laugh was infectious and her stories always entertaining. I feel privileged to call her my friend. She is missed already.
