

Armand J. Verratti Jr.

July 14, 1961 - January 23, 2024

We are sad to announce the passing of Armand James Verratti, age 62, originally from Cinnaminson, NJ but most recently resided in Fort Wayne, IN. He was a graduate of Cinnaminson High School in 1979 and the Restaurant School of Philadelphia where he pursued his love of cooking. He worked at several restaurants in the Philadelphia area and casinos in Atlantic City, Wisconsin and Indiana. He made many friendships wherever he worked and was often a confidant to those who needed an ear. He loved watching Golden Girls and enjoyed TV mysteries. He had many passions, but he held his family and faith closest to his heart. As a sign of his devotion, he would sit at the Adoration Chapel of St. Joseph's Church in Shelbyville, IN. Survived by his sister, Marilyn Ruff (nee Verratti), brother-in-law, Walter, niece and nephews, Giacomino, Angelo and Christina. Great nieces and nephews Giacomino, Fabiana, Lula, Harper and David as well as many cousins.

I first met Armand when we worked together at Harrahs in AC when we were part of a group training for the company's marketing program. He was one of the most intelligent, kind, and compassionate people I had ever met...especially in a casino environment. With his quick wit, he would brighten anyone's day. I am so sad to learn of his passing; the world has lost a beautiful person, but Heaven now has his bright and magnificent light. Rest in peace, my friend.

I met Armand through my son when they were in a group together. A few years ago we met again at Sacred Heart Church in Mt. Holly. Each time we saw each other he was so warm. I missed seeing him for awhile and was so sad to learn of his passing. Rest in Peace, Armand.
