“ My deepest sympathy to Lisa Riccardi and her family. I have known her and her mother and her grandparents all from Pennsauken, NJ, I'm at a loss, at shock , and awe, that such a fabulous person is gone. Both of my parents who Lisa knew are gone also John Lodise June 2011 @ Cynthia Lodise May 2019. Sad they are gone.....very sad. Lisa I hope your ok. Bye Chuck Lodise.

“ My thoughts are with Lisa, Carol, Eddie and family. Remembering my cousin, "Little Audrey", who I watched on black and white TV dance on "American Bandstand" in the early 60's, when it still emanated from Philadelphia. Audrey had a huge collection of 45's which she let us play when we visited Aunt Audrey and Uncle Harry on Hollinshed Avenue. As a little kid, I always thought she was so cool and grown up. Hope she's still dancing. God bless.

“ My condolences to the family and to Pennsauken Township for loosing a long time employee. I met Audrey in 1979 when I joined the Pennsauken Police Reserves. She really enjoyed being a reserve officer. My wife, Lynda Castorino-Miller went through Pennsauken High School with Audrey. RIP Audrey, you will be missed.
