

Ayan Jason Aris-Williams

April 28, 1975 - March 20, 2021

“To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under Heaven”

In the year 1975, on April 28, Albert Williams and Claudette Aris-Williams shared the joy of the birth of their son Ayan Jason Aris-Williams. He was the first born of their two children. Jason had a special place in his heart for his mom and dad but more so for his beloved sister Shante. He also had a special bond with Craig, who he grew up with like a brother. They were inseparable, a support for each other, and Jason’s passing has left a void in Craig’s heart.

Jason loved sports and was fun to be around. When watching sports, mainly football, Jason showed such exuberance when his favorite team, “The Philadelphia Eagles” won. The excitement was felt from a distance.

Jason grew up in the church and continued to attend Sunday services through adulthood. In his teenage years he accepted the Lord as his personal Savior under the guidance and leadership of Pastor Ed Harris.

Jason attended Lenape High school and pursued his educational quest to Rutgers University where he received his Bachelors degree. After college, he was employed as a Sales Consultant at Verizon. His dedication, hard work, excellent work ethics led to his consistently being recognized as a top sales consultant in the state, and a motivator. His commitment did not go unrecognized, during his tenure he won several awards and incentives. Upon leaving Verizon, Jason went on to build his own business, Capital Infosystems, LLC.

While working at Verizon, Jason met and fell in love with Maggie, the love of his life, his soulmate, partner and best friend. They were later married on July 3, 2011. The union produced their son Mason, who he loved and adored, two stepchildren Riana and Robert whom he cherished. Prior to Jason’s marriage to Maggie he fathered his first son Jayden whom he also loved and adored. Jayden remained a part of his Dad’s life and would frequently visit to spend time with his father and siblings.

Unfortunately, on Wednesday March 17th Jason was admitted to Cooper University Hospital where he departed this life peacefully on March 20, 2021.

Jason leaves behind to cherish beautiful memories of his love, kindness and adoration for his wife Maggie, sons Jayden and Mason; stepchildren Robert and Riana and an EMPTINESS that will never be filled.

He is also survived by his mother Claudette, Father Albert, sister Shante, “brother” Craig, nieces, aunts, uncles, cousins, in-laws and a host of relatives and friends who loved him dearly to mourn his passing.

Today, we can say, “A special life has passed from our sight but never from our hearts.” Jason will always be remembered for his love of family. May his soul rest in peace and light shine perpetually on him.

Relatives and friends are invited to gather on Tuesday evening, March 30th, from 6 pm to 9 pm at Givnish of Cinnaminson, 1200 Route 130 N., and on Wednesday morning, March 31st, at Willingboro Christian Assembly, 175 Somerset Drive, Willingboro, NJ, from 10 am to 11 am. His funeral service will begin at 11 am followed by interment in Lakeview Memorial Park, Cinnaminson, NJ.

Jason's funeral service will be live-streamed and can be viewed using this link: <https://my.gather.app/remember/ayan-jason-aris-williams>

“ My condolences!!, Jason was a great guy, we started with Verizon together on St. Patrick's Day, 1997. We were in initial training together the whole way through. We became good friends. He came to my bachelor party & I invited "J-Dog" to my wedding. We had a great time. He danced & danced but only in the corner. Believe it or not he was too shy to go into the middle of the dance floor. I had to coerce him into doing it. I will miss him! My name is Ed Burke

“ Dear Cousin,

I am so saddened to know that you are no longer with us. Even though we have not connected in a while you have always been in my thoughts. I wish I could have said goodbye but it was not in the cards for us. I thank God for the times we were able to spend together and for giving you to your family who you made so happy and proud! Rest well my cousin, you are gone but not forgotten.

“ For A Dearly Loved Nephew,

*Our Nephew's eyes have gone forever,
His smile, his laugh, his face
Where once he stood, before us
Pictures takes his place*

*Gone too soon, our nephew
From here, your place of birth
We can't believe, that this is real
That you no longer walk this earth.*

*Reality is, we know it's true
But still we can't believe
Our nephew, with so much life
Really had to leave.*

*We loved you from your life of birth
We watched you grow and learn
Our Nephew, we shall meet again
When it's our time, to return.*

Your loving aunts, Joy and Hope

“ TO MY BELOVED SON

*Just to let you know
I love you and miss you more than you could ever know
You played a big part in my life
And even though you have gone home before me
God knows why, and who am I to ask
Because I won't get an answer.
I have had forty five productive years with you.
As I reflect from birth to now I have nothing but cherished memories
( Even for the times you disagree with me)
The respect and love that I have for you
Will just go on and on
I will never forget You
Love Always

“ Almost 28 years ago, we embarked on a journey, at Rutgers University, not knowing we'd create a bond that would last a lifetime.

*Jason was one of a kind!
He was a baller.
World class trash talker.
Self-proclaimed spades master.
But most importantly, our brother.*

*The impact, all these years later, is undeniable.
And the loss cannot be articulated or defined.*

Jason, we regret not being there for your biggest life events, but please know that we loved you and cheered for you, immensely, behind the scenes.
