September 6, 1956 - June 22, 2018

Benjamin Michael Bardaji of Cinnaminson NJ passed away unexpectedly on June 22, 2018, at the age of sixty-one.

Benny was born and raised in South Philadelphia and graduated from Bishop Newman. As an adult he moved to Cinnaminson where he resided for the next 40 plus years. He is survived by his two daughters, Christina Taraschi (David) and Teresa Kidner (Robert), brothers William Bardaji and the late Brian Bardaji, his grandchildren Cole Dobleman and Alexandria Kidner and his former wife Terry Cancelli-Bardaji. “ The funniest memory with Benny was when > Me, Cheri, Terri, Tiny, and Little Terri went camping down the shore ; And we got my chainsaw, and started cutting down trees for firewood; And the camp owner went crazy. So Benny pulls him aside like a true #Italian 🇮🇹 , and made him an offer he couldn't refuse. Needless to say , we cut the whole campsite up. #1996

“ Benny, of all the things I think about what comes to my mind first is you and I chopping onions in the basement of my fathers steakhouse on 9th street. I was 9 or 10 you 15 or 16 saving form your first car. Benny, I will miss you, and all your talking points and ideas you had on how to get rich and make money. Well now Benny we don't need to worry about that. Do me a favor say hello to uncle Sonny and uncle Benny for me. I know there are a lot more people that you will know just try and not to talk them to death. I'll miss you cuz

“ We are so sad to hear of Benny’s passing. We remember Benny always being the life of the party. He would call me Mrs. Lehman all the time. I told him I’m the same age as you so you can call me Cheryl but every time it was Mrs. Lehman. We will never forget you. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.
