

Bert DiAngelo

December 14, 1939 - March 14, 2026

The man, the myth, the legend, Umberto “Bert” DiAngelo, 86, of Pennsauken, NJ, passed away peacefully on March 14, 2026. Born in Camden, NJ on December 14, 1939, to David and Elsie DiAngelo. Bert was a proud first-generation Italian American who grew up in Camden where his family owned a neighborhood corner store.

Bert was the devoted husband of Antoinette DiAngelo (née Fiordaliso) for 63 years. He faithfully cared for her during her long illness with unwavering love and dedication.

He was the loving father of Denise Basara (Dennis), Phillip DiAngelo (Lisa), and Diane Swain (the late Rob). Proud grandfather of Gina King (David), Vincent DiAngelo, Zachary Swain, Gabrielle Basara, Joshua Swain, and Emily Basara. He is also survived by his sister, Theresa MacQueen (Bob).

Bert proudly served in the US Army National Guard before beginning a 45+ year career at Boeing. At Boeing, he continued to serve by supporting the Chinook Helicopter.

A true family man, Bert never missed a game, performance, or school event. Known for his playful personality and quick wit, he was always joking around—so much so that friends and family were never quite sure which of his stories were true and which might have been a little embellished.

Young at heart and sharp as ever, Bert never felt his age and enjoyed surrounding himself with younger people who matched his energy. He loved the Philadelphia Eagles, and could often be seen at the local hang outs, gym and walking around the mall. Bert was incredibly personable, easily striking up conversations wherever he went, never missing an opportunity to make a new friends - sometimes with a little flirtation mixed in.

A gathering of family and friends will be held Friday, March 20, from 11:00 AM to 12:00 PM at Givnish of Maple Shade, 600 E. Main Street, Maple Shade, NJ. Burial will be held privately by the family.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Bert’s memory may be made to Wounded Warrior Project.

“ This news broke my heart. Bert crossed my mind today, I was going to surprise visit him at his house in pennsauken, decide to check his Facebook first. Didn't find his page just this article. I was a month too late. Too know bert was to love him. So honorable and the biggest trash talker. Can someone tell me where's buried and coordinates? If so. Thank you.

“ I worked with Bert at Boeing for many years. I learned from him, argued with him, we shared many laughs and stories together, and a friendship. Bert looked out for me as a colleague, as he did so many; always made sure we had the best information to make the right decisions. And even in the chaos that could be present in the work setting I knew how much he loved his family! When Bert retired, he gave me and another colleague (Clint Palmer) a cocktail glass with the Boeing logo and asked us to toast him now and then. Well, my friend I was lucky to know you. Cheers to you in heaven. Yours was a life well lived. A family well loved. If only we could all be so lucky. God Bless!

“ Phil, Lisa & Family, so very sorry to hear about your father. My thoughts go back to Strawbridge School days, and my last day as a Safety Patrol kid. My post was at Cuthbert Road and your mom was the crossing guard ( the best!) She gave me a parting gift: a helicopter model kit that I understood your dad had procured! It was appreciated then, and stands as such a nice memory of both your mom and dad. Our thoughts are with all of you. Glen & Diane Carney
