

Beth Jo Concannon

September 29, 1952 - November 16, 2024

Beth Concannon passed away on November 16 surrounded by her loving family. A devoted mother and wife, Beth she was a blessing to her children, grandchildren and the people of New Beginnings Community Church where she served alongside her husband Tim who was the pastor. She was raised in Brooklyn NY and attended Erasmus High School before moving to Spain where she lived for eleven years. While in Spain Beth became a devout Christian and served in a Christian community and taught in their school. Beth met her husband Tim in Spain who was there training for pastoral ministry. They married there and shortly returned to the states to begin their pastoral ministry.

Her greatest joy and her singular passion was for her children Matt, Chris, Eric and Rachel There was no sacrifice too great to ensure the wellbeing of her kids. Rachel and Ricky brought added joy to her life with her grandchildren Jerald and Ember. Beth decided to try her hand at homeschooling with Rachel which they both loved. At the same time Beth became an amazing administrator at the church. From running media and all things technical to running a satellite school for Global Awakening School of Ministry, Beth was more than accomplished. A gifted women of so many talents but it was her love for people that endeared her to the church community.

She loved birthdays and made them special to each of her children. She loved decorating the house for all of the holidays and especially during Christmas. She also looked forward to the beach and boardwalk in Ocean City where we vacationed every summer. She was a great fan of tennis, keeping fit and cooking amazing meals for her family and friends.

“ MY MOM by Eric Concannon

Mom is the Fruits of the spirit personified, her caring demeanor with soft brown eyes, an angel we didn't always appreciate, sweet love for her family she'd radiate, above and beyond with wide open arms, the best of intentions and biggest of hearts, her house an extension of heaven above, came from brokenness channeled to the sweetest of loves, super mom number one motherus prime what a Godly example and how brightly she shined, humility faith and a servants heart, always loving and gracious and put others first, humorous beautiful inside and out, wouldn't suffer fools (but usually be too caring to say it aloud), rather she prayed for those who were selfish or proud, a quiet strength resonates dignity loud, what a soul she had Jesus must be proud, a woman more precious than Gold no doubt...

...She'd always make sure us children were taken care of of course, slip you money for clothes and gas from her purse, send us home with a mountain of grocery bags, such caring warmth and sweetness she had, nothing was too much for her sentiment to employ, a walking hug full of gentle generous joy, went out of her way to make us feel special and loved, an angel descended from heaven above, would make birthdays and holidays the most special designs, made sure lists for your gifts were done way ahead of their time, no decorations were spared as holiday seasons went by, cookies she'd bake fruit water and pies, for her us together were like the stars come aligned, her reliable love like a clock keeping time, sometimes at family events you'd simply just find, her blend into the background with a smile that shined, watching us laugh all together quoting movie lines, with a glimmer inside both of her eyes, so brightly so elegant her soul and her mind, Thankyou God for those special times... Watching tennis movies and TV I rewind, from House 24 Chuck and Cobra Kai, such sweet sentiments couldn't get any better, birds of the flock under angelic feathers, no matter the weather always in it together, she would give and give everyday like the end of december...

...how many diapers she changed, outfits she arranged, how many clothes did she buy and tears did she dry, how many bedtime stories and lullabies, how many hugs did she hug hellos and goodbyes, how many prayers did she say, love in so many ways, how many rides to school given and times watch us play, how many thousands upon thousands of meals did she cook, loads of laundry she wash, sheets did she tuck, videos and pictures compiled into volumes of books, how many sicknesses nursed like a sweet mother bird, I honor you mom with all of my heart and these words, my mother my encourager my listener my friend, my confidant the deepest of bonds to no end, such an example of a Godly woman again and again...

Carried nine months in your belly and born, into loving arms like the sun in the morn, her actions resound in an endless bouquet, a monument you left with your bright legacy, an impact that resonates in souls every day, we commemorate a celebration of your memory, your spirit will shine until I will join you in heaven, but not quite just yet not until my last breath in, I feel your spirit with me until we will embrace, until then I'll honor your legacy and the example of your love and your faith, I'm sure you're rewarded for a life of Church ministry given, filling hearts with what's missing God's message your mission, with your husband my father a match made in heaven, two halves who were destined fulfilled with a blessing, an angel went home to join our Father in heaven, death conquered through Jesus celebrate resurrection, life now never ending, you're smiling dancing and laughing, transcendence so vivid fulfilling perfection, as for the state of your being we'll never be guessing, because the night you transcended to heavens acceptance, I heard a chorus of angels serenading your entrance, Thankyou God for this sign such a beautiful message... I'll always cherish and love you Mom all this forever remembered, and the special bond we developed so connected together, a mutual understanding as poignant as letters, I hear bells that are ringing, blinding light with white feathers, you were always such a delight, what an invaluable treasure 😊... I'll see you in heaven Mom... You're the Best!..❤️

“ Dear all, Tim and family,
As mentioned before, I treasure a beautiful ivory color “Prayer Shawl” that Beth crocheted for me years ago. Every early winter I bring it out for the cold mornings. It stays right by my morning spot where I read, meditate and pray at the beginning of a new day. I will keep it for the rest of my days. And I will keep thanking Beth when I put it around my shoulders. It is like a warm loving hug from her. I was unprepared for the news, it came as quite a shock and was also followed by similar news concerning a dear pastor. I was so sorrowful... A Christian friend, I was sharing my distress with, texted me the following:” I guess we really should be happy for them”. Such a word of faith! It changed the direction of my thoughts and comforted me a great deal. Sooner or later, each of us will have to leave this earth. No more beautiful & delightful place than to be with Jesus, and together again!

Beth was a warm and wonderful mother to us all - and a born teacher! I first met her when the first School of Supernatural Ministry was launched in July, 2012.

She had great passion for learning and teaching and it showed. You just knew when she was trying to help you, she was already praying for you to help you find your way.

We will certainly miss HER WAY of caring, smiling, joking and of course, reflecting the Father's love, joy and compassion!
