“ My memories of Camille go back to when we grew up together. I remember our vacations together in Wildwood. All the holidays and her playing the piano and singing. After we grew up, we did not see each other until my daughter contacted her to come to my 75th birthday party. I was so happy to see her again. So happy that I was able to renew our relationship after all those years. It was a terrible shock to lose her just as we where getting to know each other again. I know she is singing in heaven with the angels now. My sympathy goes out to her husband and children on their loss.

“ Mom, You are my hero and inspiration. I will miss your resplendent voice, your full embrace of life's many adventures, your beauty (inside and out), your strength, your love of and commitment to family and faith, your integrity and courage, your electric smile and spirit of fun, your smarts, your hugs and kisses and cuddles - and so much more! Now, you are with God and Babci and Pop Pop and so many others who love you; all joyful in God's eternal, loving, and gentle embrace. And, you live in our hearts always. Love, Jenni

“ Mrs. Brill was a beautiful soul. So kind and open and welcoming to me. (young) Camille and I became great friends from our college days at Hahnemann, One semester, we'd eat dinner and hang out at Mrs. Brill's house every week before going off to our night class at "BCC." From those early days through many years and visits in Cinaminson and Sea Isle City she was always glad to see me, would invite me in and share her home and family. My heart is breaking for her beautiful family but she has left a wonderful legacy in all the branches of her family tree. "May her memory be eternal"

“ I remember Mrs. Brill, which I always called her, as a kind, gracious and talented woman who loved her family very much. I did not know her well, but I remember being a guest at the shore house back in the day, and being introduced by her to hazelnut coffee, which I loved then, and love now. Our condolences to all of you, on the passing of a wonderful lady. Our thoughts and prayers for strength, comfort, and peace are with you all as you prepare to celebrate her life. I like to picture her making a joyful noise unto the Lord, as she did on this Earth.

READINGS OF REMEMBRANCE

From "Facts of Faith"

By Henry Scott Holland

Death is nothing at all. It does not count. I have only slipped away into the next room. Nothing has happened. Everything remains exactly as it was. I am I, and you are you, and the old life that we lived so fondly together is untouched, unchanged. Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by the old familiar name. Speak of me in the easy way which you always used. Put no difference into your tone. Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes that we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be ever the household word that it always was. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was. There is absolute and unbroken continuity. What is this death but a negligible accident? Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just around the corner. All is well. Nothing is hurt; nothing is lost. One brief moment and all will be as it was before. How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting when we meet again!
