“ I worked with Carla at Puratos for the past 3 years; she always had a ready smile and a positive attitude, and was passionate about everything she did. She was most passionate though when talking about her family, her friends, her softball colleagues and her Jack Russells, all whom she loved dearly.

My deepest condolences go out to her husband Jim, her daughter Krystal, and her grandsons Chase and Cole.

“ I have had the opportunity to work at the same place Carla did. I did not know her well, but every morning, she would say hello to me. She seemed very positive and pleasant. She was very approachable and always had a kind word for me. I remember one particular morning, it was cold and rainy, and she must have forgotten an umbrella or something because she was soaked. However, not even the adverse weather prevented her from giving me a warm greeting accompanied with a beautiful smile. That teaches me that saying good morning or hello to someone makes a difference because even though I did not know her that well, I will never forget her.

“ We were always talking sports; especially the Phillies and Flyers. It was thru these conversations that I came to know all about her Grandson Chase. Carla was always easy going and always smiled. These traits will be sorely missed. My prayers and thoughts are with Jimmy, Krystal, Chase, Cole and the rest of the Beasley and Pine families.
