“ Every morning, I could count on Carol for a friendly and happy hello. She and I always chatted about my wife's job at Drexel and political life, the shore, and life in general. She was truly a wonderful person, and loved talking about her family. I just found out today and my heart is heavy. My prayers are with your family, and I will always be grateful to have met her.

“ All of us at the office of Dr. Kevin Atlee send out deepest sympathy to the family of Carol and also to the workers at WAWA...I especially will miss not chatting to Carol every morning and having a good laugh!!! Her last words to me were "Well, I will see you in a month"..... Very sad knowing that she never got to see the "New WAWA" ...Sending prayers and hugs to all of you.....Joyce, Sara, Terry, Lacy, Kelsey, Cheryl, and Dr. Atlee...xox

“ Carol was an absolute joy to us and I wish I had one last opportunity to thank her for being such a wonderful person. Carol looked out for us, even her last words to me before we departed to our stores were of looking out for my well-being. Every morning, Carol was the first person I would see at work and no matter how moot the day would seem, she always gave a heart-warming, welcoming smile. The short amount of time of knowing Carol was fond and joyous and I will always look back on these days. I offer my deepest condolences to Warren and the family and I wish to take a moment to commemorate Carol for the laughs, care and warm memories we were priviledged in knowing over the years. Thank you, Carol. We will miss you.
