“ You were the best mother a son could ever hope for. You helped me so much throughout the rough times in my life. I am so grateful that I was able to spend time with you in your final months, but that will never be enough to pay you back for everything you have done. I will miss you always, especially during my wedding and when you have your first grandchildren. The memory of you will forever be within my heart.-Kevly

“ She's the one you've known forever. The one you go to for honest advice and genuine support. The one who accepts your quirky little habits and understands you in a way few others can. She's the one you can call at any hour-to laugh or cry or complain... The one whose voice has been there all along, sharing secrets and dreams and singing your song when you need to hear it most. She's the one who can read your mind, hear your heart, and love you just the way you are. She's your lifelong friend...but so much more. She's your sister. You were a beloved daughter, a wonderful sister and loving Mom. Hug and kiss Dad and Kristin for me. I love you Carol, Dar

“ I worked with Carol in the Westampton Municipal Building; even though we were in different departments and on different floors, she would always stop up to see me and we would chat. I would save her the chocolate mint candies because I knew they were her favorite. I have missed her very much these last months. She would stop by my desk to chat and she always asked about my dogs and we would chat about our children. May Carol rest in peace. My deepest condolences to her family and friends. She has left this earth too soon.

“ Remembering Carol brings a smile to my face. We had so many things in common. Our conversations were filled with the things we loved the most. We shared stories about our children and family, our faith, our aging mothers, and our love of those cooking shows. She kept our office laughing and sometimes put me in the "Time Out Chair." Thanks for sharing your Mom with me. I will always be thankful for getting to know her and being able to call her my friend.
