“ Carole and I were friends from LBI. We shared many visits watching the Phillies or Eagles. Those Phillies were her favorite and excited about every play. You saw her feisty side during the games. She really made me laugh. Her true love was her family. We would chat for hours about each of her kids, grandchildren and especially her late husband and soul mate. A true loss for each of us who knew her. Carole gave us joy in her spirit and will miss her so much! Knowing she is with her family in heaven gives me peace. Prayers and love to Carole and the entire family. Love Always Amy Knorr, family and friends on 10th Street Ship Bottom XOXO
