“ I hired Cheryl back in 2010 at BMW of Mt. Laurel and we remained friends thru out the years. I wish I could freeze time to last year when we lunched every day at MINI and ate healthy in order to try to lose some weight. Cheryl was an amazing warm hearted, caring person who will be truly missed. My deepest sympathy to her beautiful family. Sing with the Angels now my dear friend.

“ Cheryl was like a mother to me and many others. She could always, and without hesitation, find the time to lend her ear or give advice. I spent hours begging Cheryl to sneak out from work a little early to get her nails done or take a day off, but she was a worker bee to the core. Cheryl had a kind soul, open heart, patient mind and was never short on stories. She was loved by everyone around her and she loved them back. My heart is broken for her and her family. Cheryl, I love you.
