“I miss our “you driving to work” conversations. How you would randomly holler out driving advice to the people who cut you off. I miss you girl! I wish you were here to give me advice on how to get through this.

“ Chris will truly be missed! Her smile, no matter what the situation. The positive attitude and her laugh had a way to help you make it through the day and all the utter foolishness that came into play. She loved talking about her family and her grandchildren! Keeping you all in prayer.

“ I really don't know what to say except that for a very long time Chris and I were very close - she was there when Ron and I met...that's a very funny story that we won't tell, but she knows...And she was there when I needed a push to get out the door at times...I was blessed to be her Maid of Honor at her wedding and at the same time sad that she was unable to be at ours. We are thankful that she beat cancer all those years ago and our hope is that she lived her life to the fullest after that. Till we catch up in Heaven, rest in Jesus' arms.

We stayed up all night laughing and dancing to music, we played games and I will never forget that! You always knew how to light up a room everytime you walked in one! You were like my second mom & I remember susan gave you permission to beat me if needed! 😂❤️ You loved having that power! I love you mama nuge & watch over us & we will watch over your family! 🥺❤️

“Christine was a customer at my boutique, but quickly became a friend. Anytime she came in she brought nothing but laughter and light. Hearing this shattered myself and the SSB girls. Chris, we will forever remember you as the vibrant beautiful woman that made us laugh all the time. I'll miss our long text messages that would last hours at a time. My prayers go out to the entire family, especially your daughter, son and daughter in law who also we adore so very much. Xoxo may you rest in peace.
