

Christopher Floyd Ross

April 25, 1967 - October 7, 2022

Christopher Floyd Ross was born to parents William Spencer Ross, Sr. (preceded) and Dorothy Mae Ross (Singleton) (preceded) at Zurbrugg Memorial Hospital in Riverside, New Jersey.

Chris graduated from Cinnaminson High School, in Cinnaminson, New Jersey in 1985. He then attended the College of New Jersey (previously, Trenton State College) where he studied Criminal Justice for 2 years and played football on an athletic scholarship.

Chris held several jobs throughout his life, one being a Territory Sales Manager for the Keebler Company, an American cookie and former cracker manufacturer that was founded in 1853, and later working as a Truck Driver for his childhood friend Rodney Carter for several years.

Chris enjoyed camping, fishing, skiing, rafting and other recreational activities. Chris also body build and managed fitness gyms throughout South Jersey.

Chris especially enjoyed socializing with friends and felt that friendships were the most important aspect of life.

Chris is survived by his fiancé, Sandra Rose, brother, William Spencer Ross Jr., and sisters, Cynthia M. Ross and Sonja V. Ross.

Chris leaves behind 2 nephews, a niece, and host of friends and family who loved him so very much. He will be missed and celebrated for years to come.

A gathering of family and friends will be held Saturday, November 5th from 1-2 p.m. at Givnish of Cinnaminson 1200 Route 130 North.

Chris' Memorial Service will follow at 2 p.m.

“ Chris was an amazing person, and in most of my fondest memories from college. He was always smiling! With his distinct laugh and swagger, Chris loved being center of attention in our group of close friends. He is gone too soon, but his memory will be in our hearts. You will be missed! Sending Love to his family. Karen
