“ I met Claire LaPergola many years ago while our daughters were on the show circuit together. I didn't know she raised 7 kids alone, I'm amazed. She always had a smile, an easy laugh, a kind word & a helpful hand. Whenever I saw a social media photo of her she was smiling, full of laughter & I will always remember her with kindness. I will be sending a donation to the South Dakota Indian School in her honor, as that state & that charity has a special meaning to me as well.
May her family find comfort in their many thoughts & memories of a wonderful lady. RIP Claire, God rest your soul. Connie Scherr

It is always difficult to deal with the loss of a loved one. Cherish all the great memories of times spent together, both loving and being loved. Love the picture of your mother "with attitude".
