My condolences. I met Cookie when she and Pat had the party store. Then I would see her at Macy's. What a happy, and positive woman and her enthusiasm was contagious. I'm glad our paths crossed. She left a good mark on this world. Kay Stuckey Mufalli

“ The world lost a bright light when Cookie was called home. Her life long friends gave an amazing tribute as did her brother Barry. What became clear is that in her daughter Michele Cookie lives on! They have a great way of connecting with people, putting others first, and making the world a better place for others! Cookie you will be missed but in your passing thanks for reminding all of us what really matters. Rest In Peace. God must have needed and angel to come home!

“ Ms. Cookie has been apart of my life since I was a baby. My parents have known her for 20+ years from being customers of hers. Ms. Cookie met me when I was a baby. When Strawbridge's was at the Cherry Hill Mall, I used to help her checkout customers when I was a toddler. Ms. Cookie would always tell her customers in Strawbridge's and Macy's that I was her granddaughter. She was so kind and helpful to all of her customers and coworkers. She kept everyone laughing in the store all the time. We have so many great memories. She will be missed so much.
