

Corinne Marie Ross

September 6, 1933 - June 3, 2019

Corinne Marie Ross, 85, passed away Monday June 3rd in Fort Walton Beach, FL. Corinne was born September 6, 1933 to parents Mitchell and Peggy Krygier in Chicago, IL. She was married on October 19, 1957 in Maywood, IL to George J. Ross. Corinne and George traveled extensively across the country, living in 13 locations before settling in Cinnaminson, NJ in 1967 to raise their three children. Corinne and George relocated to Mary Esther, FL in 1991.

Corinne was a proud mother, devoted soccer mom, and home maker who welcomed everyone into her home and heart. She loved to cook and bake, making sure family and friends always had access to their favorite treats including chocolate chip cookies, wacky cake, and homemade fudge. Her children and grandchildren knew they were the light and focus of her life.

Corinne was an extremely giving person and very active in every community she lived in, always lending a hand and putting others before herself. She created and presided over many social organizations in Cinnaminson and Mary Esther: New Neighbors Bridge Club, Pilots Service Organization, Coterie, Welcome Wagon, PTA, and many more. Organizing and playing in bridge groups provided many life-long friendships.

Corinne is survived by three children, Scott Ross and his wife Fiorella

(Cinnaminson NJ), Laura Olson (Dallas TX), Alan Ross and his wife Janet (Windham NH); grandchildren Victoria Kassin and her husband John (Snyder TX), Kara Ross (Philadelphia PA), Miranda Mignon and her husband Florent (Cremant, France), Alexander Ross (Cinnaminson NJ), Rebecca and Allison Ross (Windham NH).

Corinne was preceded in death by her husband of 45 years, George J. Ross, brother Dennis Krygier and his wife Jenny, son-in-law Myron Olson, brother-in-law Jimmy and his wife Doris, and her long-time best friend and loyal companion Cinnamon (dachshund).
