

Daniel "Danny" Morales

August 17, 1968 - October 13, 2016

Daniel Morales, of Cinnaminson, formerly of Philadelphia, passed away suddenly on October 13, 2016. He was 48 years old.

Danny was the loyal and loving husband of Joelle Morales (nee James) for 23 years. Beloved son of Pedro and Doris Morales. Cherished father of Daniel Jr. (Angela), Andrew, Michael, and Christopher. Dear Abuelo to Roman and Leia. Brother of Miriam (Bob), Ricardo, Steven (Yolanda) and Genie. Son in law to Florence James. He is survived by the Morales cousins and his best friend, Paulie. He will be missed by his four legged kids, Khole and Jagr.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend Danny's life celebration gathering at Snover/Givnish of Cinnaminson, 1200 Rte. 130 N., on Wednesday October 19 from 9 am – 12 pm. His funeral service will begin at 12 pm, followed by entombment in Lakeview Memorial Park, Cinnaminson.

“ Dearest Danny,
I sit alone now in the darkness of despair.
I cry my silent tears,
My heart is broken into a million tiny pieces.
The silence is deafening to my ears.
The darkness frightens me,
The shadows climb the wall.
I hear footsteps walking,
Passing through the hall.
The loneliness surrounds me,
It takes my breath away,
This is the pattern of my life,
Since that awful, dreadful day.
Without a clue
Without a hint
Of what was yet to be,
God called you home
To be with him
And took you away from me.
I walk, I talk. I carry on
When the sun pokes out its head
But when darkness falls
And evening comes
I cannot go to bed.
For this is when I miss you most of all
When I curl into a little ball
And cry those silent tears.
Watching the shadows,
And missing you.

“ You had a talent for bringing special meaning to life,
It was such a pleasure to be your wife.
You helped me to grow and to realize the fullness and the beauty in our lives.
Every day I counted my blessings.
Then God called, and you went away
Out of this world to a brighter day.
Suddenly my life of gladness
Turned to utter sadness. My grief wears me down,
I shed so many tears,
As I recall your love and devotion through the years.
For your sake and in memory of your name,
I pray for strength to do things the same.
To reach out, to fill the hours with useful ways,
To comfort, to cheer and have no more empty days.
I try to console myself — it was God’s greater plan. So I must accept it, if I can.
You moved away to His splendid home above,
If there is life after death, I know you will be waiting there for me,
With love. Though Heaven and Earth divide us, and the distance is so great,
I count my blessings for the years you were my mate.
I will live my life remembering, while you wait, slumbering.
My beloved, may you rest in peace. I LOVE ❤️ YOU DANNY!

“ Dan-

Hey, my friend! I know nobody will really understand who I am or how we became to be so close... But I know you do. I need you to know how important it was to me that you believed in me... I need you to know how amazing you were... I need you to know that I will make you proud... I promise. I wish I knew Joelle and your family so much better than I do, you talked about them like they were the most amazing people on earth... I wish I could have them all come with you to visit us in Hilton Head. You asked to come here so often, and I begged you to come. I will miss you so much. Dan, I wanted you to know my family... I wanted my kids to know you, I wanted them to see a great man. I wanted you and I to get back together and do it all over again. There was really nothing like having a beer and talking about a hard day's work with you.

There was so much we had in store for all of us. But I love you, and I will never forget you... For some crazy fucking reason, you think I am someone great... I'm sure you say that to everyone you meet. But, Dan... I promise you... I will not let you down.

“ My condolences to the Morales Family!! I'm truly hurt by the sudden passing of my good friend Danny. We had good times but we also had rough times But it's funny because the rough times were the times that made us realize that we were brothers in the struggle, even became roommates at one time. That's when we realized we actually cared for one another!! We had each other's back!!! We went our separate ways when u decided grow up and take care of your family. I always respected u for that!! I saw u a while ago around our job sites and like always it was great to see u. We kept in touch since then and it was great that u didn't treat me any different. I love u for that bro!!! Again ,it was an honor knowing you Dan You were a true friend til the end. See u soon!!! One live!!!

“ Dear, Danny

I'm at lost for words I still can't believe this is real we had a lot of great times you made me feel like a million bucks and told me the sky's the limit you always motivated me I'm going to miss your smile especially your jokes and our talks that we always had. I know you're in a better place now and you can rest peacefully you and papi "pepe" taught me to be a better man you now taught me to never take life for granted especially family we need to always be close and stick together because life is too short. You were a positive influence on me and everyone around you I remember when you used to come from New Jersey to mommy "madrina's" house to take Hector to buy candy. You were truly a great man and you will be missed dearly by many we will always love you no matter what.

“ Danny, I'm always going to remember your warm spirit and loving heart. You were a big teadybear with a huge heart. I'm going to miss your text in morning telling me to "Have a blessed day!". I could see your big smile thru the text. I'm certainly going to miss our joking around, Joelle used to say "those two, everytime they get together their always laughing" and we sure did. Its funny how we got each others jokes even when other people didn't. One of the biggest things that I will miss is the way we used to reminisce about my brother and all the crazy things you guys did...I'm so sad to lose that connection. And I'm definitely going to miss to you DJ'g all of the songs we loved from back in the day. I'm sure playing those songs up there now having a party. Rest up cuz. Love you always. ❤️

Mr. Daniel Morales, my brother from another mother I'm really at a loss for words on how u truly made me the man I am today. You showed me how to stick up for myself, (the hard way)!! You were like a big brother to me. As roommates you showed me how to be a responsible person. You were a loving son to your mother Doris. Sometimes we were at odds!! (took care of it the hard way) because that's the way you showed love!! But then hugged each other because we respected each other!! I always loved that about you. You always had my back through the good and bad!! Didn't matter, you were there!! I always miss that laugh of yours!! All in all you were an awesome friend that's gonna b missed terribly. My love and prayers to the rest of the family. May you R.I.P. It was an honor to have known Mr Daniel Morales. I love you Dan. But of course you already know that!! See you at the crossroads!!!

“ Danny, Big Dan

Thank you for being a great dad to Daniel. He loves you so much and you always called him your "angel". All you wanted was to spend time with your family and you lit up every time you were around Dan. I'll never forget how you made the room feel with your crazy, wonderful personality. You were so full of life, hyped up, and always so happy. Just looking at your pictures I smile I can hear your voice, see your mannerisms, see you walking around in your jersey, playing darts, blasting some spanish music. You cracked me up and always made me laugh. You were soooo happy to be a grandfather and I promise to always let Leia and Roman feel your love and know you. We are lost without you and the world is definitely a little grayer with you gone. We love you forever and know you will continue to look down and protect your family like you always did. Love you ! “ Uncle Dan,

You were a great man. You knew how to entertain your guests and throw awesome Flyers parties.

I recall spending a whole summer with you and the family. You guys allowed me to stay and never complained. Except for that one time because you feared that I would eat you out of house and home. I was a teenager and a growing boy. LOL.

There was also the times we went to your mother-in-law's house for a barbecue and swimming. We made up a game where if a horsefly landed on you, somebody had to smash it. My head is still ringing from all the bashing. Boys will be boys, and you helped mold all of the young men into men.

You had mad skills on the wheels of steel aka the 1's-and-2's aka turntables. I definitely miss you and wish that I had at least one last laugh with you.

My heart is heavy and I send my love and condolences to your wife and the children.

God Bless you and may your spirit be in peace with the Father.

“ I shared my condolences in a previous quote, and now I'm going to share a memory or two about Danny. I don't even know where to begin. There are so many memories I have of Danny throughout the years. I remember my sisters and I saying, " we have the coolest (handsome) cousins, with their cool clothes, car, and haircuts." Dan will ride is green mustang (yes back in the day) playing the song "Regulators (Nate Dogg), on his loud speakers, and we (sisters) will run down the stairs to greet Dan and Rick. I looked forward to his visit to receive a "Big tight hug from him' and boy can he hug. Dan and I had our hard time as well. We were both so stubborn, and hard headed. However, I couldn't stay mad at him especially when he'll smile with his puppy dog eyes. Dan will say," you know I love you cuz, don't be mad, Iris it's all good." When we will hug it out, I will feel protected, loved, and safe. We argued like brother and sister, which Dan and I will say all the time. Lord knows Danny, you were more like a brother than a Cousin. Danny always wanted peace, and couldn't endure anyone being angry or upset with him. Danny loved with passion, and protected hard. Oh how, I can use a "BIG TIGHT HUG", from Danny right now. So many memories from hanging out at my mom's house, Danny and Joelle's family home, their wedding, Christopher's Baptism, playing sports in the yard, being there for me and my family when (Tio Pepe) my dad passed away, movie nights (always talking during the movie), hanging out in the front of the house listening to music and drinking with my mom, taking rides to wine and spirits, fixing my mom's back door (he was so proud of it), having our, "heated" discussion moments, playing music on his DJ equipment, talking about his, "SEXY BEAUTIFUL" wife, and the list just goes on. Finally, his zest for life was contagious. I'm going to miss our talks about God, oh how you loved God so much. I know you are with your heavenly father in heaven. I hope your heavenly father is everything you expected and more. Thank you Danny for being you, and constantly loving me unconditionally.

Love you Always,

“ Dear Dan,

I want to start by saying I love you and thank you for everything you have done for me. I wish I would have said this to you face-to-face, but I wanted to be just like you. You were a great husband, father, brother and friend. I loved the way you were always happy and kept a positive attitude. I can remember going to a store and waiting in line, you would just talk to everyone there. I thought that was cool. I also remember when we ran in the movie theatre because Joelle called you saying some guys were saying things to her and Chris, then went back to your house and laughed about it. That's how you were though. So friendly to strangers, but always protective of your family. I used to love going to your house to hang out. We ate dinner, watched a game and you would eventually say "I wanna play some hockey brah" which we would end up doing for hours. A lot of times I'd end up staying the whole weekend. You would always tell me "don't worry about it, my house is your house". Thank you for that and thank you Joelle for putting up with me.

I never had so much in common with someone. We had the same love for sports, music, Playstation and jerseys. You were like a brother to me. You taught me a lot of life lessons. Even now, you're still teaching me to stop waiting until tomorrow to reach out to someone, to do it now! I wish I would have felt like that 2 weeks ago when I wanted to reach out to you. You had a beautiful heart my brother. I will always see you in your Jeff Carter Flyers jersey. Love you big brother

“ Danny,
I feel so confused but my heart feels so heavy. I just remember how you would always say "Hey nena, how are you!" with a big hug, you were always so nice and welcoming to me. It was always a good time hanging out with you. You were always so laid back, cool and collected, which makes me so sad to think that your gone. I'm always going to remember you, the good times. I remember when you slept over our house with Chris and we ordered food and that morning I made you guys breakfast, and when we went to lake with Joelle and i was still pregnant, we had such a nice time. Or many times you came to visit just to watch the eagles games and how you and joey would just be guys watching the game and drinking beers. And when we went to visit you guys one day and we went walking to the little beach in the back with Jagyr. I'll always remember you wearing your Eagles or Flyers jersey and hat. Theres so many moments I remember and that I will always cherish them because you were a great person. I will miss you Danny. I hope and pray that one day we will meet again. You will always be in my thoughts and in my heart.

“ Danny,

I don't know what I am feeling my emotions are all over the place. I feel hurt, extremely heartbroken, angry, sad and shocked that I have lost my dearest Brother. We have made plans for our future together and you were supposed to come down to VA and work with me, it hurts me to know that we are not going to have that now. I will always remember the great times we had from watching the Eagles play, coming out as a family in the Puerto Rican Day Parade, and just hanging out and playing cards or darts. I cant imagine not having you around. I will miss our talks and our texts and I will truly miss you brother. Rest in Peace, and I will always love you and we will see each other again.

Thanks Car...smh, It's just so sad. Truly, the one friend...that only one that we all have that will do anything for you..I've been listening to a voice-mail he left me about 3 weeks ago and to know that I will never be able to have that one friend anymore. We are still so young and he tried always to help guide me in the right path because he had lived so many different ones. I will truly miss him and that laugh. Our movie quotes until we almost peed ourselves..and so much more. I could go on and on. But I guess i have to live with only the memories now. Again thank you I really appreciate it.

“ I remember distinctly meeting Danny when I was about 12 years old. 24 years later here we are and not one day went by without us having a great morning/afternoon talk, dart night or eagles/flyers Sunday together. Even if it was every 3 months we picked up right where w left of. Any time I needed to talk to someone he was always there for me. He was like my big brother. Danny I will forever miss you buddy. I used to call him the man with the golden heart...he lived up to that and much more. I could sit here all night and talk about our time together and how we helped each other like brothers. “ Danny, as I sit here and think about you I fondly remember your kindness and generosity. The love you shared for your beloved wife was a love we all hope to find in our lifetime, it is the love we usually say is something from a movie. The things we care for in life such as money and power were not things you worried much about. The only things that meant the world to you were your family and friends. Your laugh could brighten a room and your smile could make you feel as if you were the most welcomed person in your life. I see so many traits of you in your sons and they are such wonderful men, your life will truly live in them. I hope you see how much you were loved by the ones you cared for the most.

Although certain situations kept us at a distance , it never change the love I had for you. You truly made an impact in my life and I will never forget you. All the fun times, the laughs, until we were crying from just the good times. You were there through the good and bad times. You were there for my sister's and I when my dad past away and i will never forget that!! You lit up the room by just your smile and laughter. It was always a warm, loving feeling in tbe atmosphere when you were around. If you saw anyone us sitting by ourselves you always sat beside us making sure we were ok and just giving us love. Your jokes were beyond funny and I love your love for music(esp your cd's). You had a big heart and I will truly miss everything about you. You had that love for family as well. Your kind generous spirit will always live on in your amazing boys and I hope you knew how much you were loved.

“ Words can't express that hurt I feel at this moment. Dan, I will miss you so much. I wil always love you to infinity and beyond. I will always remember the love you had for your wife and kids. I will keep you, Joelle, Michael, Chris, and Danilel Jr. in my prayers.

Danny's spirit lives on for eternity in all of being. I'm blessed to have had that Brother in Christ in my life. You will never be forgotten! God bless his loved ones!

“ Hi Mr. Morales this is Aidan Mann. You are safe in heaven with my dad too. You are the nicest man and always made me feel safe. We played tons of games, you made me laugh, you are such a great man. I will miss seeing you walking your pups. Mrs. Morales, I am so sorry for your loss, whatever I can do to help you I will. Chris & Mike, my condolences. Whatever my mom and I can do to help we'll be here. Love ya bro. He was taken from his family and friends way too soon.
