“ My condolences to the Adair family on the passing of Daryl.
It seems like I knew Daryl my entire life. He was that tall kid who rode a Stingray bicycle. In my early teen years he used to hang around with all his friends at Garfield Park.
I was with him the night his 1978 Chrysler Newport got totalled on Forklanding Rd. We snapped a pole clean in two. Nether of us got hurt. Both our glasses ended up between the passenger seat and the door folded as if they had been placed there undamaged.
R.I.P. Woo I'm sure your in good hands now
