

David Edward Mirfin Sr.

December 6, 1958 - August 29, 2016

David Edward Mirfin, of Delran, passed away on August 29, 2016. He was 57 years old.

Born and raised near Bridgeport CT, Dave lived for a time in Boston MA, Philadelphia PA, Maple Shade NJ, Ferndale MI and Delran NJ. He spent much of his early career in the field of specialized dog training including personal protection, obedience, and Schutzhund. He went on to a successful second career as he owner/operator of AllBrite Carpet Cleaning. Dave was dedicated to the success of his employees and company.

Dave had been involved in BSA, Troop 25 Delran NJ for many years serving as Scout Master and mentored a number of Scouts through their advancement and on to Eagle Scout Rank. He was actively involved in all his children's extracurricular activities and was always happy to volunteer wherever needed. Dave loved music, vacationing with his family, and had a particular appreciation for the water. Always rooting for the underdog, he had a love of helping those in need, was passionate about raising people up, and giving second chances.

Dave was the beloved husband of Nancy (nee McFeeley), loving father of David E. Jr., Jacqueline, and Edward and dear Grandpa to Katherine.

Dave is survived by his sisters, Patricia Payne and Carol Potter, and brother Gary Mirfin. He is predeceased by his brother Johnny Mirfin.
