What a beautiful video of a loving and hard working man and his loving family. I especially love the end with "Take Me Out to the Ball Game". I can really see David Jr. in his father's face. Thank you for sharing your wonderful photo memories with us. May he Rest In Peace.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Mr. Sanderson through his daughter, Paula. He was a sweet guy with a love for the Phillies, Eagles and ice cream. A man after my own heart. I know he was a hard working man, just from conversations with his daughter and how much he missed being able to do work with his hands. I enjoyed hearing about his daily antics. Mr. Sanderson reminded me of my own father and a generation of men, who loved their country, family and we're not afraid of hard work. He now has the best seat in the house to watch any games he wants. Hopefully he can even help them from Heaven. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and all the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, Rest In Peace. Amen “ Simply said my pop was the best. One of the many many things I loved about my pop was he got better with age. He was a quiet gentleman, a fantastic coach, and laughed at his own jokes. He taught us about cars, and how to be good people. I am so very lucky to have had our special Friday's. We had a routine and we both looked forward to my day off, it was our day. I will love him until my last breath. I love you pop.
