

Delores Ann Williams

November 12, 1970 - September 4, 2022

Delores Ann Williams, 51, of Willingboro, NJ, passed away on September 4, 2022. She is predeceased by Doris Denson (mother) and Alton Williams (father). Devoted mother to Danelle Shardae Harper and Amarya Tiana Harper. Dear sister to Scott Lovick (Udobundu) and Nikisha Williams . Beloved Aunt to Elyse Jones, Mikaela Lovick, Devron Lovick and Maximus Turner. Adored by her step father Willie Denson.

Often referred to as Lori, she was a kind, resilient and charismatic woman with a loving heart. Delores loved children and was a dedicated child care provider for many years. She enjoyed watching movies and listening to music and would often be found singing one of her many favorite songs. Delores was a dedicated Jehovah Witness and was passionate about her faith. One of her favorite scriptures was 1 Corinthians 13: 4-8; the chapter addresses themes of integrity and of the heart and that love is the driving characteristic of what motivates our actions. The verse further explains the characteristics of grace and Godly love, in which Delores embodied and lived by intentionally.

Delores will be remembered for her love and dedication to her daughters. Her ultimate goal in life was to provide the best possible future for them. As she would often say, a daughter is someone you laugh with, dream with, and love with all your heart. Our hearts are broken as we mourn the loss of our beloved Delores. Her bright light and big heart left us too soon, but we will always remember her laugh, her warmth, and her love. Delores will be greatly missed by all.

A gathering of friends and family will be held on Monday September 12, 2022 at Givnish of Marlton, 398 E. Main Street, from 6PM to 8PM EST with the service beginning at 6:30PM. In lieu of flowers, donations in Delores's name may be made to the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) at donate.nami.org. “ I would like to send my condolences to the family. I am so very sorry for your lost. Lori was my friend, my girl and I'll miss her so much until I we meet again. I remember when her cousin, Brian introduced us and we clicked because she was real. She was undeniable Lori all day and I loved her. No matter what we did together whether it was field service, chilling at her apartment, getting something to eat we were always laughing and just enjoying ourselves. She was a loyal friend, and she would give you anything, everything, even her last when she didn't know how she was gonna get more. I love my Lori and I miss her and I'm sorry so for this deep lost. “ My beautiful cousin Lori, words cannot express my sadness and how much you will be missed. We all grew up more like sisters rather than cousins. I can still see your beautiful smile and recall the fun and sometimes crazy times we had together. The memories you given us will always live forever. Love you forever cousin.

Kisha and Scott - my sincere prayers and condolences are with you! Losing a sibling is HARD, but God's grace is truly sufficient. Praying your strength! I love you both! To the Family, I love you all so very much! Draw close to God and He'll draw closer to you! Trust Him and rest in Him!

Rest well cousin Lori! Your vibrant, bubbly personality and bright smile will be so missed. It's almost morning. See you later 🥹🙏❤️
