“ There is not enough to say about Dennis. A joy of a person. A teddy bear with attitude. A heart so large it was bursting. I am shocked at his passing. My heart is heavy for the family that embraced me and has lost so much too soon. I am more sure than ever that there is a heavenly place for all of us to be reunited. All our love goes out to the family we love so much. Karen and Jack Forrest.

“ For many years I worked with Dennis as a customer. In our business relationship we had the usual ups and downs, but always maintained mutual respect and genuine friendship. After I retired that respect and friendship got stronger and we enjoyed many visits about the past, and about changes in the golf business and industry.

Dennis was truly one-of-a-kind. And in a world where compliance and conformity are the valued norm his strong opinions, colorful personality, and sometimes brutally honest approach will be dearly missed.

RIP my friend.

“ Dennis was a long time business competitor but also a friend. He was a truly good guy and his passion and personality will be missed. I have fond memories of nights on the town during trade shows in Las Vegas and Orlando. He was pure Irish, lived large, and has left memories that will make many smile until we too meet our maker.

RIP Dennis. It was a great journey.
