“ I just read the paper tonight and I was shocked to see his obituary. I am so sorry to hear of Dennis' passing. I supported Dennis at Lockheed Martin as his finance representative for a few years when I supported Systems Engineering and then again when we worked on the Ddg1000 program. He was wonderful to work with and such a great guy. He loved his family, we talked about you all regularly. The world will be missing one of the good ones.

“ I am shocked by the news of Dennis's passing. Dennis and I worked together years ago and he was a great mentor and friend. Dennis always had a smile and words to lighten any situation. Dennis was always quick with jokes. I will never forget the Valentine's Day he coordinated a joke with my husband and came to my desk at 4:00 pm with urgent business he needed me to get done that would have taken me hours when he knew my husband and I had plans. He let me sweat about it for quite a while and thought it was hilarious. Dennis always talked about his family and it was obvious he married the love of his life and was so proud of his children. I am so very sorry for your loss. Rest in peace Dennis.

“ I just heard the news through my lockheed family and I was completely shocked. Dennis was an amazing mentor to me in my early years at Im. The knowledge and time he spent with me I could never repay him for. Unfortunately, we got separated at work through our careers but I never forgot about him. I would see him in meetings occassionally and would make it a priority to go say hello. I wish I knew that I wouldn't have a chance to tell him how proud I was to have known him and let him know that people like him dont always come into your life and offer the things he did for me. I am sorry now that I did not take him up on those offers to play poker on the deck when I should have.

Thank you Dennis!!! Rest easy my friend!!!!

“ *Dennis was a competitor in many ways - school, sports, etc. I remember being the only one to get an A on one of our accounting projects - which did not make Dennis or Phil feel good (since I was a girl) so it was game on in that class. We also had good times diving together - we pushed each other to do crazy things. I will miss his smile. Dennis was a good man and I hope he's at peace. Sending prayers to Dennis' sons. “ Rest in Peace brother! You were a great friend and will be missed. Favorite story was probably the time in High School that I went to Colorado to go skiing and Dennis lent me his brother Brian's drivers license so I could get in the bars. He explicitly told me not to use it around Cinnaminson or his brother would kick his ass. Well of course, after I got back my friends urged me to go to the "A-House" with them. At the door I showed the bouncer the license and he looks at me and says "so you are Brian McLaverty huh", I said "yes that's me", and he says "oh really, because Brian is standing at the bar right over here..." and he led me over to Brian and made me give him his license back. One of the most embarrassing moments in my life. Sorry Brian, I hope you didn't rough Dennis up too much! I love you Dennis! I hope that was an appropriate memory to leave. John P. Walthall
