

Dennis P. Wrigley

December 4, 1954 - September 7, 2022

Dennis P. Wrigley passed away suddenly on Wednesday, September 7, 2022. Born in Philadelphia to Henry and Catherine Wrigley, Dennis was 67 years young and a resident of Haddonfield. He grew up in Maple Shade and stayed local having also lived in Cinnaminson and Mt. Laurel.

Proud and loving father of Lisa (Michael) Lewin and Douglas P. Wrigley. Cherished Pado to Jason and Lauren Lewin. Brother of Michael Wrigley, Kathy Bobenrieth, and the late Francis (Bud) Wrigley. Dennis is also survived by his former wife Livia DeAnnuntis to whom he was unwaveringly loyal.

Dennis had a love for nature, fishing, and all animals big or small, wild or domesticated. He enjoyed his music at the loudest volume whether it be classic rock, funk, or bluegrass. Always with a smile on his face, he was a very proud father, grandfather, and unconditionally devoted to all his family and friends.

Due to allergies, the family requests no fresh flowers. If you feel inclined to do something in memory of Dennis, the family would appreciate donations to the CdLS Foundation in his memory in honor of his granddaughter Lauren. www.cdlsusa.org

Just saw this. Dennis was my neighbor in the 50-60's. Dennis always sported a smile. RIP.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of such a lovely man.
I have such fond memories of Dennis from when I was a kid. He was always so kind and welcoming to me no matter how much of a grumpy teenager I became. He could always surprise me with his dry wit perfectly timed. And when I thought I had found an eccentric niche new band he would always know them with a complete back story to match.
You will be truly missed. My sympathies to your family. Lots of love

“ A sudden lost of a long time friend is the hardest time for all of us. My fondest memories of Dennis would be the timeless games of Risk which lasted until the wee hours of the the morning. Dennis had a strong devotion to his family and friends. Music was so important in his life and could remember the Roots of just about every band we both enjoyed. A peaceful man who will be eternally missed. Love you Dennis.
