“ Diane was my first love. We have known each other since 1954 at Camden Catholic High School. She bascially tought me how to dance. Although she had quite a few male admirerers by the beginning of 1956 I was the one. She became my "steady", friendship ring and all. We attended Christmas Balls, Junior Prom, Senior Prom. Very shortly after graduation we got engaged and then we married. Diane was a wounderfull Mother to our two terrific childern. I will always think of her fondly. Diane we all will miss you a great deal. Love, Freddy.
