

Dillan Anthony Hardt

December 30, 1997 - January 5, 2019

Dillan Anthony Hardt passed away suddenly on Saturday, January 5, 2019, at the age of 21. Dillan grew up in Cinnaminson, and was currently residing in Riverton, NJ with his family.

Dillan graduated from Cinnaminson High School in 2016. During his high school years he was part of the wrestling team and made many lasting friendships. He always remained particularly close with his neighborhood friends. Dillan was funny, intelligent, and had a huge heart. He was quick to lend an ear or shoulder to those who needed it, as he felt it was truly his calling to help people. Dillan enjoyed travel, especially trips to Italy, Arizona and Florida. He had hoped to return to Italy someday. Dillan loved God, good food, and time spent with family and friends. His smile could light up the room. Dillan made everyone laugh and would always find something positive to say about everyone he encountered. He was a great big brother and son.

Dillan was the cherished son of Francine and Scott Zimmermann of Riverton, NJ, and Aaron and Samantha Hardt of Mesa, AZ. Adoring big brother to Jude Zimmermann, Emma Hardt, and Scarlett Hardt. Cherished grandson of Ed and Diane Garron, Cheryl Hardt, Mark and Tonya Sotelo, and Judy and Harold Zimmermann. Loving nephew of Walter and Lisa Conover, Ken and Jing Conover, Bill and Gina Conover, Cathy and Steve Shirk, David Hardt, Nate Hardt, and Alex Hardt. Dear cousin of Michael, Sophia, Jake, and William. Dillan leaves behind many other extended family members and friends who will miss him tremendously.

Relatives and friends are invited to gather with Dillan's family at Givnish of Cinnaminson on Sunday evening, January 13, from 6-9 pm. His Mass of Christian Burial will follow at 11 am on Monday at Sacred Heart R.C. Church, 4th St. And Linden Ave, Riverton. Interment will be at Lakeview Memorial Park, Cinnaminson. “ Today at dinner time, the radio played Eric Clapton's song "Tears in Heaven" while your Uncle Ken and I were talking about the difficult time with the coronavirus going on. We were both silent for a while. That moment I knew we were both thinking of you and missing you! Dillan, it's been over a year and we still feel you are around. We know you won't have any tears in Heaven and please also watch us from there to help us pull through this hard time. Wherever you are, we always love you and we know you do the same, too!

“ My beautiful precious son. I watch this video often just to help with the hurt my heart constantly has. What I wouldn't give to have you back in my arms, to kiss and hold you, and to never ever let you go. A piece of me is gone forever that I'll never get back. I see and speak to you daily in my thoughts and prayers. I'll love you for all of eternity, Dillan. Until I get to hold and kiss you again.
Love forever,
Dad

“ Can't believe I have to live on without you. It's been 268 days. I still am waiting for you to walk through the door and make my day. My heart feels crushed forever. How could this of happened ? Wishing we could have helped you through so this wasn't your best option.

“ The most loving young man I have ever had the pleasure to have known. From birth I can remember the joy he had brought to this family. Life is precious, too short and unpredictable. Though frail as the human condition is... this young man was a pillar of strength in the face of a life full of obstacles presented that we couldn't understand. He knew he would find the peace he longed for with his creator. When God was ready he summoned his human-angel to suffer no more. Rest in peace my nephew! We all love you and though there is still paths in our lives we must tread, we will all be together as the family we are meant to be.

“ My heart truly breaks for all of Dillan's family and friends. I met Dillan when he was just a kid that my daughter was friends with. He was always so sweet. Not all kids would go out of their way to say hello but he always did. He was a wonderful friend to my daughter and her to him. They had a special bond. I'm so thankful to have known him. ❤️

“ Dill, when I firstly met you in 2012, you were a teenager with beaming smile and a very very good heart that cares and loves. Your uncle Ken brought you over to my PhD graduation ceremony at Rutgers and I could never forget the big clapping and whilsting that you and your uncle Ken made when I went to the podium to be recognized. After the ceremony, you asked me “ does it take a lot of work to get a PhD?” I replied, “ not really, young man, when you enjoyed the journey.” You overwhelmed me by searching into your bag and offered me a congrats card together with some cash in it. I was soooo touched at that moment when your heartfelt message was delivered in that envelop and a shy smile. I told you that I would take the card, but not the money because one day I will take your money when you have grown up and made your own fortunes as a strong, independent man who makes me proud. How much I expect to see you grow and turn into such a person, my Dill! And how painful it feels to lose you now.....

Our last conversation was during our Conover’s Christmas party weeks ago when you heard about my surgery and inquired the details. I could see again in your eyes how concerned you were and I could feel your care and love when you hugged me before we said bye. Your last sentence to me was, “ Aunt Jing, I hope you feel better soon!” And now, my dear, dear Dillan, you have come to my dreams, where I keep telling you, “I am feeling better now, Dill, and I hope you are feeling better, too!”

Your life journey is nothing but extraordinary, even though short. I know you have enjoyed it. Wherever you are, young man, WE will always love YOU! 🌿🍀🌸

“ Dillan, we will miss your smile and your easygoing attitude so much. You always asked 'how are you doing?' and unlike many people, I always believed that you cared about the response. You seemed to listen more than you talked, which is such an amazing thing--so simple, yet few people do it. I remember you telling me recently how much you loved warm weather...I hope it's 'always 80' in Heaven, my man! You will be missed very, very badly and we will cling to the memories we have of you until we meet again.
