

Dolores E Creedon

June 5, 1932 - March 2, 2015

Surrounded by her loving family, Dolores E. Creedon passed away on March 2, 2015.

A small town girl from Maple Shade, NJ, Dolores made her homes in various locations across the country including Dallas, Los Angeles, and Anchorage, Alaska. Reluctant to uproot and move, she left her heart in south Jersey, returning here to live later in life. For Dolores, people mattered more than place as she truly lived for those she loved.

Beloved wife of the late Daniel A. Creedon, Jr. Loving mother of Daniel L. Creedon and his wife Kyoko, and Denise C. Creedon and her husband Stephen Madva. Devoted grandmother of Alan D. Creedon, Faye N. Creedon, and Nicole L. Creedon. Sister of Robert Yannetti. Relatives and friends of Dolores are invited to attend a memorial service to celebrate her life on Wednesday, April 8th at 11:00 am. Gathering of family and friends at 10:30 am at The Evergreens Chapel, 309 Bridgeboro Road, Moorestown, NJ 08057.

“ My condolences to your family. I will be forever grateful to Dolores for letting me stay in her home when I moved to California. We had many good times and good meals together. One of my favorite recipes of hers was chicken cutlets. I make them to this day for my family and I always think of her.
